PLAN TO BOMBARD BLACK SEA PORTS

Appalling Conspiracy Aboard the Russian Fleet Discovered in Time to Frustrate

CZAR'S SAILORS WERE READY TO MUTINY

Odessa, June 17.—It now appears that the mutiny here of the Black sea fleet, consisting of eight battleships, eight cruisers and a division of torpedo boats, whose crews in all number 5,000 men, was only discovered just in time to prevent the planned bombardment of Odessa and the Caucasian coast towns.

The fleet came here June 16 for practice and had just entered Odessa bay when the commanding officer, Admiral Tzftsinsky, on board the flagship Rostislav, seeing that the orders were not promptly obeyed and knowing of the mutinous spirit animating the crews, suddenly signalled an order to dismantle the guns and head back to Sebastopol, where, after troops had been sent aboard the warships, several hundred sailors were disembarked and imprisoned.

CHANCES OF STRIKE LESSON.

Such Answer Not Likely to Be Made to Government's Coup d'Etat.

St. Petersburg, June 17. — The chances of the proclamation of a general strike in answer to the government's coup d'etat are steadily lessening. The question is now under discussion at a secret conference of the central committee of social democrats, which is being held in Finland, but a strong current of opposition is known to prevail, not only on the part of the moderate leaders, but also among the adherents of the radical majority. A fraction of the moderates urge that the government is now so strongly intrenched that a strike would be futile and only weaken the prestige of the party and involve the rank and file and the industrial proletariat generally in a series of reprisals and immense pecuniary loss.

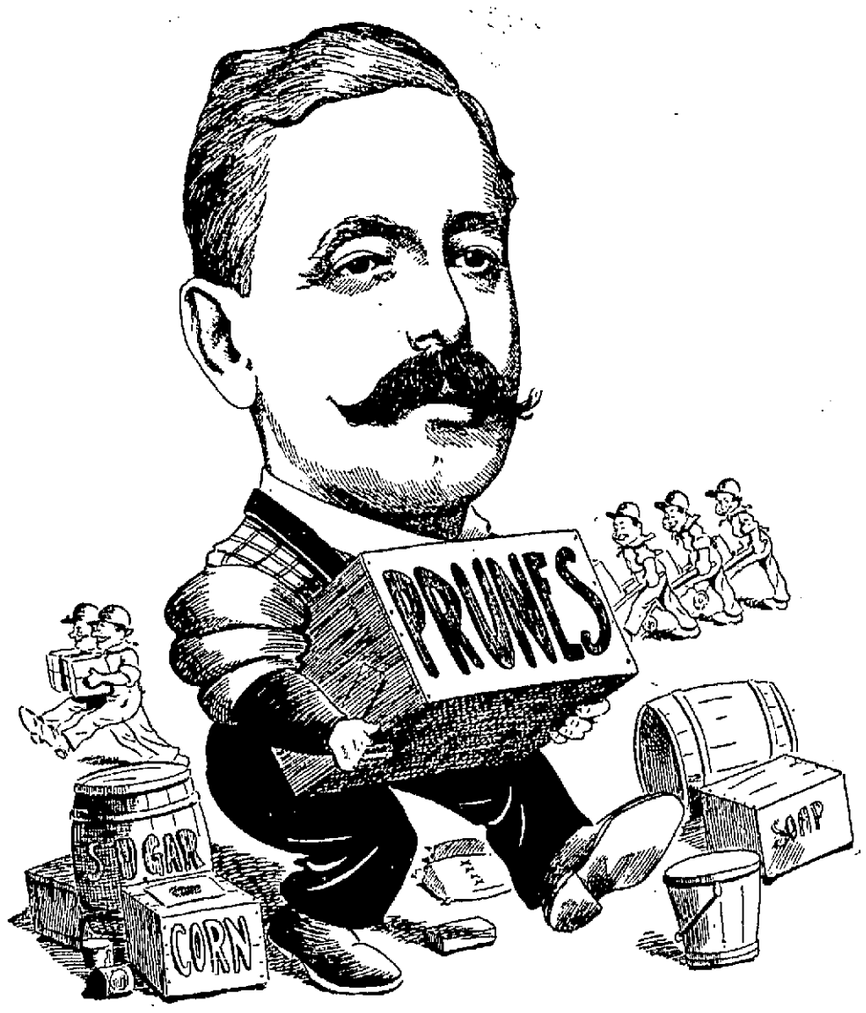
The constitutional democrats hope to return a considerable number of the sixty land-owning representatives, whom the government believed would be exclusively conservative.

The feeling in court circles against Premier Stolypin, who has undertaken full responsibility before his majesty for a speedy convocation of parliament on the present basis of suffrage, is said to be bitter and he is alleged to be the object of a strong reactionary intrigue.

WARSAW PEOPLE INDIGNANT.

Warsaw, June 17.—The new election law, reducing Polish representation in parliament to complete insignificance, is causing the deepest gloom and indignation here. The leading papers this morning declare that a revolution is impossible against the overwhelming Russian forces and that the Poles are only able to give their cause to the public judgment of Europe and America.

MEN OF AFFAIRS IN FORT WAYNE



MR. ROBERT MILLARD.

The man behind the gun has had his say in tale and song,
But here's a man behind the box who pushes things along.
He does things large and handsome for those who have to eat;
To a multitude he caters in a fashion that's complete.
His other business is to make the town of Fort Wayne boom;
All he needs is opportunity and a few square miles of room.
When he's gone there may be some one who is fit to take his place;
If there is, he'll have to qualify in Bob Millard's progress race.

BEVERIDGE SHIES AT QUESTION OF HIS ENGAGEMENT

Definite Rumor That the Indiana Senator is to Be Married.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 17.—United States Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, who made a personal call on President Roosevelt last evening, left Oyster Bay for New York on an early train today. Mr. Beveridge would neither affirm nor deny the report that he is to marry Miss Katherine Eddy, of Chicago, remarking that the reports were matters which no gentleman could deny. He said, however, that no one had any knowledge or right that would justify the publication of the report.

Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, who is visiting here, was much disturbed

WILL MAKE VAST CHANGE IN INTERIOR OF POSTOFFICE

Postmaster Hanna's Plans Endorsed by the Department.

Plans formulated months ago by Postmaster Hanna for remodeling the interior of the Fort Wayne postoffice building have just been approved by the postoffice department, and authority has been granted to advertise for competitive bids under which the work will be done.

The change will vastly increase the floor space available for the working staff of the office, and at the same time will greatly beautify the interior. The postmaster's office, at present in the southeastern corner of the building, is to be moved to the Berry street side, and the southern lobby is to be thrown into the office work room, gaining 800 square feet of additional floor space, which will accommodate fifteen carriers. The money order and registry departments remain where they are, but will be enlarged by the elimination of the small entrance lobby at present used and cutting windows into the main lobby of the office. The general work room of the office will be connected directly with the money order and registry departments.

New terrazzo floor is to be laid in the building and there will be an entire new screen and lock-box outfit, with marble bases and marble wainscoating about the room, and there will be many other improvements, including two sets of revolving doors, one upon the Berry street side of the building and the other at the Clinton street entrance, and wooden panels are to be removed from other doors and bevel plate glass inserted instead. The whole is expected to greatly facilitate the handling of the mail business and at the same time will give the Fort Wayne office a thoroughly modern equipment.

HOLMES MADE FINE THING OUT OF STATISTICS

Witness in Crop Report Leak Case Gives Sensational Testimony.

Washington, June 17.—Something of a sensation was created in Judge Stafford's court today when Louis H. Van Riper, who has been regarded as the principal witness in the trial of Edwin H. Holmes, jr., on the charge of defrauding the government in connection with the alleged leakage of the cotton crop reports of the agricultural department, was called to the stand.

After stating New York to be his residence and saying that he is engaged in operating in western mines, Mr. Van Riper proceeded to retail his dealings with Mr. Holmes. He said he had first met Holmes on the 7th of August, 1904, at a hotel in this city, whither he came to meet him on representations made by Frederick A. Peckham, of New York, who had assured him of Holmes' ability to supply advance information concerning crop reports. The witness said that the introduction was made by Mr.

FIREMAN THROWN FROM ENGINE IN MAKING FAST RUN

Peter Lauer, Driver at No. 6 Severely Injured—Car Hit Johnson.

Peter Lauer, a driver at engine house No. 6 in Bloomingdale, while responding to a fire call on Elizabeth street about noon today, was thrown from his seat in crossing the Lake Shore tracks on Fourth street, and severely injured. One wheel of the engine struck a rock, and as they were going at a rapid speed, the course of the heavy wagon was diverted, tipped to one side, and Lauer losing his balance, was thrown from his seat, and fell heavily to the ground. He sustained severe injuries about the face, hands and back. The Barnett ambulance conveyed him to his home at 1210 Marion street. Dr. C. M. Goheen and Dr. Bolman relieved the pain and attended to his injuries.

Marcellus Johnson Injured.

Marcellus Johnson, residing at 1435 Broadway, who is employed by the Hicks & Miller Trucking company, as a result of a collision with a street car this morning on Columbia avenue, is suffering with a broken rib and other internal injuries that will confine him to his home for a few weeks. The wagon on which Johnson was riding was hit about 11 o'clock between Barr and Clinton streets, and he and the driver were thrown to the pavement. Johnson was taken to his home in the Barnett ambulance. Dr. S. D. Sledd was summoned and dressed the injuries.

URGE CALMNESS AND PRUDENCE WITH AMERICA

Leading Men of Japanese Constitutional Party Adopt Resolutions.

Tokio, June 17.—Leading members of the constitutional party held a meeting this afternoon and passed a resolution on the American question, recommending, in view of its importance, calmness and prudence and also the advisability of trusting to both governments for a satisfactory solution.

The text of a resolution which has been adopted by the constitutional party is as follows:

"The persecution of our compatriots is deeply to be regretted for the sake of both America and Japan, but we must not forget that there exists between the two nations the closest friendship, which might almost be called an alliance. In face of the professions of the government at Washington and the American people in general, such incidents as are reported to have occurred must not be taken as expressions of their will. It is believed therefore that the question, if properly handled, is capable of a just and intelligent solution.

"We must refrain from becoming excited over unlawful conduct on the part of the people and thus injuring the national cause. We expect that a proper settlement will soon be reached through powerful diplomacy."

THREE MEN FATALLY HURT IN BOILER EXPLOSION

Accident in Huntington Saw Mill Will Cause Trio of Deaths.

Huntington, Ind., June 17.—Three men were fatally injured by the explosion of a boiler in the Andrews Cabinet company's sawmill here today. The injured are:

William Mote, William Gift and William Burton, mill hands. Low water in the boiler caused the explosion.

EIGHT MEN HURT.

REACH AGREEMENT AND MEN WILL RETURN TO WORK

Cigar Manufacturers and Workmen Now in Perfect Accord.

Differences between Fort Wayne cigar manufacturers and their workmen, which for a time threatened to involve serious labor trouble, were adjusted today in an agreement satisfactory to both employers and the union workmen, and the cigarmakers will return to their benches tomorrow morning. Some of them, in fact, are already at work.

The whole trouble appears to have been due to the fact that some of the terms of the cigarmakers' union were not clearly understood, some of the manufacturers placing upon them an interpretation at variance with that intended by the workmen. With this explained away, there was no further hesitancy upon the part of the manufacturers to agreement.

Few of the workmen were at their benches today, pending the adjustment of the difference. The cigarmakers' strike board was in session at the headquarters in the Bank block. It received a committee from the Manufacturers' association and the whole situation was thoroughly canvassed. Withing a few minutes after this committee had reported back to the manufacturers the adjustment was reached.

ALTON'S TELEGRAPH OPERATORS QUIT IN MISSOURI

Were Liable to Arrest, So Message Said and They Left Their Keys.

Kansas City, Mo., June 17.—"To all telegraphers:

"Quit work at once. You are liable to a fine of $1,000 for violation of law."

The foregoing message went over the telegraph wires of the Chicago and Alton railway lines yesterday. It bore the date line of Ryder, Mo., a station near Kansas City that has been closed for several months, and was not signed. Six operators, two from each of the stations of Watson, Booth and Curryville, obeyed the order and quit work.

The law referred to in the message went into effect last Friday and makes railway companies liable to a fine of $1,000 for compelling or permitting operators at block signal stations to work longer than eight hours a day. The operators are not held liable.

Agent Was Arrested.

Herbert S. Hadley, attorney general of Missouri, when told of the arrest at Paris, Mo., of a Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway agent by the prosecutor of that county, on a charge of violating the two-cent passenger fare law, said today:

"There has been no general agreement among the county attorneys to proceed in this way that I know of. I'm certain no such advice has been given from our office, but such cases may be expected."

"Is not this county attorney in contempt of court in instituting such an action?"

"I don't think so," the attorney general said. "I believe he acted within his rights."

The agent arrested had refused to sell a ticket at the two-cent rate.

Mr. Hadley, as well as the railway counsel interested, remained in Kansas City over Sunday to hear the decision of Judge Smith McPherson, of the United States district court, promised for this afternoon, in the suit of the eighteen railways who ask that the federal court enjoin the state from enforcing the two-cent and the maximum freight laws.

FATAL AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

Sanbornville, N. H., June 17.—In an automobile accident last night three persons were probably fatally injured. They are:

Dr. Benjamine Hicks Metcalfe, head of Metcalfe's hospital, Winthrop, Mass.; Mrs. Metcalfe and Miss Churchill, matron of the Metcalfe hospital.

The automobile plunged over a high embankment, burying its occupants underneath.

Vienna, June 17.—The first Austrian parliament elected on the basis of equal universal suffrage was opened today.

THE PEACE DELEGATES REPINING FOR ROOSEVELT

Wish He Had Not Surrendered His Initiative to the Czar.

The Hague, June 17.—Although the "Pacificists" still insist that the question of the limitation of armaments must be raised in some form before the adjournment of the peace conference, the last chances of any government coming forward to openly propose the discussion disappeared with the knowledge that the government of the United States considered that the initiative belonged to Europe and not to America.

M. Nelidoff's depressing utterances at the opening of the conference, coupled with the unfortunate dissolution of the douma at the very moment the conference had assembled has produced many expressions of regret.

Wish Roosevelt Had Kept Lead.

Expressions of regret that President Roosevelt yielded the initiative of the second conference to Emperor Nicholas. The correspondent of the Associated Press has heard dozens of delegates speculating on the difference of effect which would have been produced had the keynote been sounded by a country inspired by democratic tendencies. As matters now stand neither England nor any of her continental friends are ready to move lest the mere suggestion of debating the question of the limitation of armaments inject a spirit of discord which would endanger the useful work achievable and possibly break up the conference under circumstances which would postpone another conference indefinitely. Grimly, somewhat disconsolately, therefore, the preparations for the real work are proceeding. The interim between now and Wednesday will be occupied with conferences of the leaders of the larger powers regarding the program for organization and the appointment of committees. The American delegation is not asking much for itself in the way of honors, preferring to seek recognition for the Latin-American countries which are entering the conference under its auspices. In addition to the three committees of the last conference, namely, military, naval and arbitration, three others probably will be created; first the rights and duties of the neutrals; second, the immunity of private property at sea; third, the Drago doctrine.

Plan Has Been Abandoned.

The countries favoring a discussion of the question of the limitation of armaments originally planned to propose the appointment of a committee on limitation of armaments or disarmament, but this naturally has now been abandoned. Should there be any objection to the committee on the Drago doctrine, Joseph H. Choate, head of the American delegation, may formally move on Wednesday a presentation of this subject, together with a proposition aimed to strengthen the personnel of The Hague tribunal, the two principal matters which the United States will press. The Drago doctrine, however, will be presented in modified form and an effort will be made to disassociate the principle from the name under which heretofore has been known.

ORCHARD IS TAKEN TO SCENE OF HIS LAST CRIME

Self-Confessed Slayer of a Score to Be Tried in Caldwell.

Caldwell, Idaho, June 17.—Harry Orchard, the confessed murderer of former Governor Steunenberg and eighteen other men, was brought today to the scene of the crime which finally landed him within the clutches of the law, and taken before Judge Wood at the county court house. The Haywood case at Boise was adjourned over today to enable Judge Wood to come to Caldwell and enter an order formally adjourning Orchard's trial for the present term of court.

The prisoner was attired in a new brown suit and attracted considerable attention. The local attorney, Mr. Cox, who has been the attorney of record for Orchard in this county, was relieved from further duty by Judge Wood this morning and with the consent of the prisoner, Frank T. Wyman, a Boise attorney, was appointed in his place.

The date of Orchard's trial will not be made until the cases against Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone at Boise are disposed of.

WITNESS FOR DEFENSE DIES.

Canon City, Col., June 17.—Charles W. King, an important witness for the defense in the Haywood trial at Boise, Idaho, died from neuralgia of the heart yesterday. Bloodhounds belonging to King were used in tracking after the dynamiting of the Independence depot. An hour after his death a telegram addressed to King summoning him to Boise was received.

RAILROAD RAISES WAGES.

Binghamton, N. Y., June 17.—Following a conference of employes and officials of the Delawate & Hudson Railroad company held last week, announcement is made that, taking effect at once, the wages of all conductors, baggagemen and trainmen will be increased 10 per cent.

A GREAT GATHERING OF CATHOLICS IN JULY

Federated Societies Will Hold Convention in Indianapolis.

St. Louis, Mo., June 17.—Anthony Matre, of St. Louis, national secretary of the American Federation of Catholic societies, announced today that the program for the sixth national convention of the Federation of Catholic societies to be held in Indianapolis, July 14 to 17, had been completed. The convention, Secretary Matre says, will be the greatest representative Catholic gathering ever held in the United States. Fully one million and a half of Catholics will be represented.

The delegates will represent such national bodies as the Catholic Order of Foresters, with 130,000 members; the Ancient Order of Hibernians with 200,000 members; the German Central Verein with 100,000 members; the Knights of St. John, the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America, the Catholic Mutual Benefit association, the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters, the Western Catholic union, the Irish Catholic Benevolent union, the Catholic Benevolent Legion, the Bohemian and Slavonic national bodies, besides many state federations, county federations, Catholic parishes and institutions. Ten thousand Catholic Indians as well as the Porto Rico and Hawaii federations will also be represented.

The convention will open with pontifical high mass at St. Peter's and St. Paul's cathedral, Indianapolis. Archbishop Blenk, of New Orleans, will preach the sermon. Public mass meetings will be held at Tomlinson hall on July 14 to 17, at which addresses will be delivered by Archbishop Messmer, of Milwaukee, Bishop McFaul, of Trenton, N. J.; Right Rev. J. Schrembs, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; J. Roche, LL. D.; Hon. William P. Breen and others. Hon. Edward Feeney, of Brooklyn, will preside at the meetings. The Claypool hotel has been selected as headquarters.

The federation was founded six years ago. It has the approval of Pope Pius X and eighty bishops. Its aim is to serve church and country and to unite with good men of all creeds to combat evils such as divorce, intemperance, etc.

HAS JURISDICTION IN MISSOURI'S RATE CASE

Federal Judge McPherson Rules—Fair Test of the Rate Law.

Kansas City, Mo., June 17.—Judge Smith McPherson, of Red Oak, Ia., in the United States district court here this afternoon handed down an opinion growing out of the conflict between the circuit courts at Kansas City and St. Louis and the federal court here over the enforcement of the Missouri maximum freight and two-cent passenger laws.

Judge McPherson retains and maintains jurisdiction to adjudicate the validity of the freight and passenger laws of Missouri, including the amendatory freight law of 1907. Whether the temporary injunction asked for by the Missouri railroads to restrain the state officials from enforcing these statutes, shall be issued and if issued whether it shall enjoin the enforcement of either the passenger or the freight laws, one or both, will, the court says, be considered a week or more hence.

Judge McPherson said that his pres-

TORPEDO WAS FIRED POINT-BLANK AT ADMIRAL

Little Target Practice at Sebastopol Had a Bad Look to Officer.

Sebastopol, June 17.—Rear Admiral Wiren, in command of the Black Sea fleet, was cruising in a steam cutter yesterday, while a torpedo boat in command of Lieutenant Ruzhek was practicing firing Whiteheads in the inner bay. When the admiral's cutter was at short range the torpedo boat suddenly changed her position and fired a blank Whitehead directly at the cutter, penetrating the latter's water tank. Only the promptitude of the crew in beaching the cutter saved the admiral. Lieutenant Ruzhek explained that the Whitehead was fired accidentally, but he and three junior lieutenants, who were sullen and refused to salute the admiral, were degraded, and as the result of later evidence, arrested on the charge of attempting to sink the cutter.

when seen last night in regard to the report he was to be married to Miss Eddy, who is at present visiting her brother, Spencer Eddy, secretary of the American embassy at Berlin.

"I am surprised," said Senator Beveridge, "that any paper should have published such a thing without some authorization. The report was published as mere gossip."

Neither Affirms Nor Denies.

However, Senator Beveridge refused either to affirm or deny the reported engagement. Asked as to the truth of the report that he was going to sail for Europe on Tuesday, the senator said:

"I will leave Oyster Bay today, and it is probable I will not see the president again this summer."

Late last night Senator Beveridge was seen as he was returning to the home of Joseph H. Sears, after a stay of nearly three hours at Sagamore Hill, where he had talked with President Roosevelt. Mr. Beveridge told the reporters his talk with the president had been purely personal and that no politics had been discussed. He admitted that even his pet subject of child labor had not been brought up.

"We discussed various things," said the senator, "but nothing of public interest."

HAS JURISDICTION IN MISSOURI'S RATE CASE.

ent view is that the two-cent law should not be put in force until it can be ascertained by actual experience whether two cents will be remunerative.

The decision was rendered in the case of the Wabash Railway company versus Herbert S. Hadley, attorney general and other state officers and seventeen other like cases.

Judge McPherson's Decision.

Judge McPherson's decision follows in part:

"The real question here is, has this court jurisdiction over the passenger fare law of 1907 of the Missouri legislature, declaring it unlawful to charge more than two cents per mile? A lesser question is, whether bills tendered for filing are supplemental bills to those filed in this court in the eighteen cases two years ago and now pending before Mr. Schofield, the master?

"What is the supplemental bill in equity, and wherein is the importance in defining? It is usually where there has been some change in the rights of the parties which must be carried forward by a supplemental bill. One hundred and more years ago judges who had but little to do except to play the role of mental acrobats and seek to refine and distinguish and to display an affected learning, and to discuss most gravely 'the difference betwixt the west and northwest side of a hair,' most elaborately set forth their views as to original and demanded bills and supplemental bills and bills of review and bills in the nature of bills of review. Whether this proceeding should be by original bill or by supplemental bill is of small consequence. If by original bill, the railways had the right to file the same without notice, and the right to a restraining order without notice. If by a supplemental bill the usual practice is to require notice. And in either case it is discretionary with the judge to allow a restraining order without notice until a hearing can be had on notice as to a temporary injunction.

But One Proper Way.

"That the fixing of rates by the legislature is presumptively correct, all concede. That it is a legislative act, all agree. But that such rates must be reasonably remunerative, cannot longer be discussed. The railways are entitled to cost and a reasonable profit and no fair-minded man disputes it. How to arrive at the cost and reasonable profit is a most difficult problem. But it must be ascertained and this ascertainment can only be by judicial proceedings and to be determined only by the courts and ultimately by the supreme court of the United States.

"There is but one orderly and seemly way, and that is in equity with the right of an appeal to the supreme court, as has been said by that court over and over again. Argument that the courts of the state can decide as to the validity of the laws of the state as well as can the United States courts will not be argued by any federal judge but will be conceded. Those courts are as high minded and as learned as are the federal courts, but that is not the question. It is a question of jurisdiction. And this court has jurisdiction and will maintain its jurisdicton.

Orders Will Stand.

"The orders heretofore made will stand until vacated or modified. The cases will be set down for hearing as to whether a temporary injunction shall issue, and if issued, what shall be the scope? shall they restrain the enforcement of the recent freight rate statute? shall they restrain the enforcement of the recent two-cent passenger rate statute; tentatively, shall a subject to argument, and subject to change of opinion, if I should hear the cases, my present view is that the two-cent passenger fare statute should be put in force and kept in force for some months at least, with the right of the railroads later on to renew their motions to enjoin the enforcement of th estatute. One class of people claim that with a two-cent fare travel will so increase as to make it remunerative. Others deny this.

"How is this question to be determined? Is it not all speculation and guess work? Of what value will be the testimony of an ordinary business man and what value will be the testimony of the railroads? Such are my present views hurriedly stated, and without time to place them in the shape of a formal opinion. Nor would it be of substantial benefit to any one to review the many authorities. They are known to the profession and to the courts. But I have stated what the law is as I understand it to be."

SUPERVISORS TO MEET.

Will Consider What to Do In Light of Mayor's Conviction.

San Francisco, June 17.—When the supervisors meet today it is expected that the preliminary steps will be taken to reorganize the city government.

While it may not be deemed advisable to read Mayor Schmitz out of his office today, action will be taken, should no legal obstacles intervene in the meantime, which will lay the foundation for such a step.

It is recognized by the graft prosecutors that if the mayor is permitted to transact official business at the county jail he will be able to make the claim that he is as well able to perform the duties of his office in prison as any other place. For this reason the prosecutors will endeavor to have the supervisors act as soon as it can be legally done.

Omaha, Neb., June 17.—Colonel Alexander Hogeland, of Louisville, Ky., the newsboys friend, and father of the curfew, was found dead in bed in his room today at the Murray hotel with a gas jet turned on and the transom closed. His death, however, is believed to have been accidental. Of late he had become very infirm.

Relatives of Colonel Hogelund had written the Murray hotel management where the colonel always stopped when in Omaha, to take good care of him on account of his old age and enfeebled condition, and adding, too, that he had a weak heart.

Colonel Hogeland's wife at Louisville, has been notified.

AUTHOR OF CURFEW LAW.

Louisville, Ky., June 17.—Colonel Hogeland was chiefly known as the author of the curfew law, although his work among the newsboys had been carried on for many years. While his home was in Louisville he spent much time traveling around the country in the interest of his hobby "work among the boys."

The Associated Press dispatch was the first notice of the colonel's death received here. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Col. Alexander Hogeland, "father of the curfew" and the "newsboys' friend," was well known in Fort Wayne. For ten years and more he had made frequent periodical visits to this city and he had formed a wide circle of acquaintances here. He had preached and spoken in nearly all of the protestant churches of the city and in the public schools. The newsboys of the past half score years have known him well and he was in great esteem with them. Colonel Hogeland was here but a few months ago and at that time showed rapidly declining powers. In the fall of 1897 Colonel Hogeland started the agitation here that culminated a few months later in the enactment by the city council of Fort Wayne's curfew ordinance. Colonel Hogeland was a gentle, kindly, Christian man and was thoroughly devoted to the cause of the street boys throughout the country.

AFFIDAVIT IS FILED.

Charles Lasher to Answer for Driving Away a Rig.

An affidavit has been filed in the city court against Charles Lasher, charging him with stealing a rig belonging to Frank Streets, a junk dealer, who left his outfit standing on Columbia street Friday. He was found at the Farra saloon, north of Robison park, where he had been taken into custody by four young men for an attempt to drive away with a horse and buggy belonging to a farmer. The fellow has been in trouble a number of times before but on account of his family he has not been punished.

C. S. KNIGHT IS BETTER.

Fort Wayne Man Ill at Marion, Ky., Now Slightly Improved.

Some improvement is reported today in the condition of Charles S. Knight, of this city, who suffered an attack of paralysis some days ago while in Marion, Ky., looking after his extensive business interests there. His son, Willard Knight, and his daughter, Mrs. F. C. Peters, are at their father's bedside.

TODAY'S BLAZES.

A little after noon today a dwelling house belonging to A. Hattersley on Elizabeth street was damaged to the extent of $500 by fire. The fire originated in the chimney and spread to the roof. The department responded, and soon had the blaze extinguished. It was in this run that Peter Lauer was injured. A house on Brooklyn avenue, owned by the Pennsylvania company was damaged $10 this morning by fire.

The Patterson-Fletcher Co. special suits are drawing many people.

GENERAL AGPECT OF AIRSHIP
PRINCE PIERRE D'ORLEANS AND M. SANTOS-DUMONT.
DETAIL OF MECHANISM.
FROM THE EUROPEAN EDITION OF THE N.Y. HERALD

M. Santos-Dumont, the most celebrated of modern aeronauts, attempted a flight with his No. 16 airship combination of cigar-shaped balloon and horizontal planes on the Bagatelle field, Paris, a few days ago.

The machine ran about the ground a few meters, when the point of the balloon tilted, the propeller struck the ground and rebounded and the balloon collapsed.

M. Santos-Dumont was able to stop the motor just in time to prevent an explosion.

Because Dr. Thomas Mable alleged that he had been victimized by reason of the purchase of a "heavey" horse, Justice Eiler at Warsaw, fined Willard Evans $10.50 under the new law making it a misdemeanor to sell or trade a horse known to be a "heaver."

The Adams county grand jury has returned an indictment against Reuben Walling, residing in the southern part of the county, charging that some months ago he allowed his little son to die from cholera infantum, refusing to either administer medicine or call a physician.

The board of trustees of Taylor university at Upland adjourned Saturday without voting in favor of moving the institution to Muncie. The legality of the proposed move was questioned, and the trustees postponed action until the matter can be decided. The institution was formerly located in Fort Wayne, where it was known as the Fort Wayne M. E. college.

The jury at Huntington in the case against D. A. Mosher, on trial under the charge of having murdered the infant babe born to his daughter, was unable to agree after a deliberation of almost twenty-four hours and was discharged Saturday evening. Nora Mosher, the daughter, who is also charged with the crime, will be placed on trial June 28.

"Oak" Compton, a desperate Missouri outlaw who has defied the officers for two years, was captured in Elkhart a few days ago after a fight with the officers in which he was overpowered and disarmed. He had broken jail at Columbia, Mo., where he was held on a charge of cattle thieving, and stole a team with which to make his escape.

Mrs. Essa B. Waters, 38 years of age, formerly residing near Woodburn, swallowed carbolic acid Saturday night at her home in Whitley county and died at 5 o'clock Sunday morning. She was found dead in bed by her children as they returned from summoning aid after having been awakened by the agonizing suffering of the mother. Mrs. Waters located in Whitley county six months ago, purchasing a farm north of Columbia City. She had been separated from her husband for some time, but the latter visited at her home several days last week, and it was understood that the couple had patched up their differences. Mrs. Waters brought him to Columbia City Saturday evening to take the train for Woodburn. It was learned that Mrs. Waters left two lengthy letters, one addressed to her husband and the other to her children and her sisters. The latter missive entreated them not to blame anyone for her deed, and declared that domestic trouble had led her to take her own life. The immediate relatives surviving include six children, besides her father, Cyrus Farner, near Harlan, and several sisters. Funeral at Woodburn Wednesday.

MEALS FOR TOMORROW

(Chicago Record-Herald.)

TUESDAY, JUNE 18, 1907.

—Breakfast.—
Sliced Oranges or Grape Fruit.
Cereal with Cream.
Omelet with Grape Jelly.
Rolls. Coffee.

—Luncheon.—
Scalloped Asparagus.
Bread and Butter.
Graham Strawberry Shortcake.
Tea.

—Dinner.—
Puree of Green Peas. Croutons.
Noisettes of Tenderloin. Horseradish Sauce.
Radish or Lettuce Salad. Wafers.
Rhubarb Sherbet. Sponge Drops.
Black Coffee.

Scalloped Asparagus—Cook in slightly salted boiling water until tender; place a layer in buttered baking dish, sprinkle with seasoned bread crumbs; dust with grated cheese and grated, hard-boiled eggs. Arrange in layers until pan is nearly full. Cover the top with bread crumbs, dot with bits of butter. Pour over one cup of thin cream sauce to moisten the whole. Bake in quick oven until delicately browned. Two bunches of asparagus and three eggs will be enough.

Graham Strawberry Shortcake—To one pint of rich buttermilk or sour milk add one even teaspoonful of baking soda and beat well; add half a teaspoon of salt and enough graham flour to make a batter rather stiffer than cake batter; shape in two thin cakes and bake in quick oven. If you do not want so much crust lay one on top of the other to bake, with bits of butter between. Have ready a quart of nice strawberries, sweetened and mashed. Butter the cakes and spread fruit between and on top. Serve with plenty of rich, sweetened cream, or whipped cream.

Noisettes of Tenderloin—Cut from the end of a tenderloin of beef slices about five-eighths of an inch thick. Flatten down to about three eighths of an inch and trim round. Salt on both sides, dash of pepper; put in hot sauce pan containing a tablespoonful each of olive oil and butter. Cook rapidly seven minutes. Arrange on small pieces of toast that have also been fried in oil. Pour a little gravy over and serve very hot.

Rhubarb Sherbet—Boil for ten minutes twelve stalks of rhubarb in two cups of water and two cups of sugar. Freeze as usual. Just before removing the dasher add one cup of minced raisings.

Note—Wash all oranges before serving. Do not throw away the rind. While it is very indigestible eaten raw, it makes a most delicious preserve, to serve with ice cream, or whipped cream. Lemons may be used in the same way. Cut in quarters, dry them, put in fruit jars until you have enough to preserve. The rinds are also fine to flavor apple and other sauces. (Original.)

THE PRAYER THAT IS ANSWERED.

Mr. Moody said his little boy called to him one day, "Papa, I want a drink," and then he went on with his play, and his father, not believing that the child really was in earnest, kept on with his reading. Soon the child spoke again, "Papa I want a drink." But still he kept on with his play unconcernedly, and his father read on. Presently he left his toys and came and took hold of his father's knees and said earnestly, "Papa, I am thirsty. I must have a drink." "Then," said Mr. Moody, "as soon as I saw that the child meant what he said, I granted his request speedily." The fervent prayer never fails to get audience.

Mayor Schmitz is in jail in San Francisco all right, but there's a lot of company he ought to have that he hasn't got.

Chancellor Day has exploded again. As a repeating fulminator the head of Syracuse university has all other descriptions of modern firearms left way back of the flag.

Mrs. Howard Gould's sister has become a Chinese citizen. This seems to serve ample notice on Mrs. Howard Gould that she isn't going to get away with all the family distinction on a mere scandal and highly seasoned divorce.

Some of the south moved northward to Jamestown to see the president. Vice President Harrison isn't at any time needlessly losing any checkers, so he has moved down to meet some of the south. Curious notions the vice president has of vacations and outings and places to spend the heated term.

Usual quiet, law-abiding Sunday in Fort Wayne yesterday. A shot-gun and revolver duel is the only incident reported as marring the calm of a beautiful and abstemious day. Perhaps that was the city hall's response to the Journal-Gazette's request for law enforcement.

Municipal lighting project, seeming to be temporarily aground on the telephone reef, time might be utilized framing up a lid that not only will fit but stay on. Can't be expected that the city hall will be able to do all things at once, and here's a chance to fill in what might otherwise turn out mere waste time.

The death of Mrs. Naomi DeVilbiss, of this county, will be the occasion of widespread regret, not only in the community where she long had resided and was best known, but throughout the state. Mrs. DeVilbiss for many years had been conspicuously identified with the work of farmers' institutes in Indiana and she had devoted her unusual talents to a most fruitful effort to spread the propaganda of rural home-making throughout the wide field of her endeavors. She was a public speaker of uncommon graces as well as force and she did much in the modern work of practical farm-schooling to make farm work more profitable and farm life more pleasant. She was a woman of fine and well-developed character and was admired and esteemed by all with whom her daily life and her chosen work brought her in contact. She will long be gratefully remembered by a vast number whose lives she has helped to make brighter and better.

We do not know how much can be expected of the police department as it is at present administered, but it is not expecting much to look to that branch of the city government to bring the Kennedy joint on Columbia street and a number of other places like it down to a decent observance of the law; or, better still, put them out of business altogether, on the records they have made and the general repute they bear. That these places are permitted to go on doing business in the fashion they do and enjoy practical immunity from molestation is something that seems past finding out. There is one theory, of course. But who gets it, if anybody? It strikes us that it would be worth the while of saloonists who make any pretence of conducting their places somewhat in accordance with law to unite in some effort to rid the business of such examples of flagrant lawlessness as these deadfalls afford. The task of cleaning this city of something like a score of the worst of the joint class of saloons presents no difficulties whatever. There isn't a night or Sunday but enough violations of the liquor laws are committed to furnish reasons for legally revoking their licenses. There is plenty of incapacity in the present police administration, but at least it is yet equal to the job of ridding the city of the worst of the dives that infest it.

AIR VOYAGE A SUCCESS.

Signal Corps of Army Accepts New War Balloon.

Washington, June 17.—Capt. C. D. Chandler, of the signal corps, has submitted to the chief signal officer of the army a brief report of his voyage in the army balloon which he made with two other persons on June 4 from this city to Harrisburg, Pa. The report was favorable and the balloon was accepted by the war department, as heretofore stated. The signal office may take up the matter of purchase of additional balloons in the autumn.

The report shows that the general direction of the voyage to Harrisburg was almost due north with the speed much greater at low altitudes. The partly cloudy condition of the weather was responsible for expansion and contraction of the gas so that even altitudes could not be maintained. An observation taken at 4 o'clock in the afternoon indicated an approximate speed of 35 miles an hour. The total distance traveled was 103.8 miles, the start being made at 1:15 p. m., with an entire weight of 2,402 pounds, and the landing being effected at 5:45 in the afternoon.

EASTERN RAIL MERGER.

The Hartford to Be Part of An Enlarged System.

New Haven, Conn., June 17.—Steps are to be taken almost immediately by the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway company for the merger with itself of the Poughkeepsie bridge system of railroads, which includes the Central New England and its subsidiary lines, now under the New Haven corporation's control.

The Central New England and Poughkeepsie bridge system has besides a bridge a total track mileage of 256 miles and a total capital stock of $10,714,000.

BUSY DAY FOR EXPLORER.

The Duke of the Abruzzi Honored in Boston.

Boston, June 17.—The duke of the Abruzzi, the Italian admiral and explorer, who is in this city for a ten days' visit, found a strenuous day mapped out for him today and, refreshed after a day of rest yesterday, called at the state house to pay his respects to Governor Guild. The duke after a short stay, returned to his flagship, the Varese, which is stationed at the navy yard, and received Governor Guild's return visit, later tendering the governor and his staff a reception on the Varese.

BIRDS CAME IN SLOW.

The flight between the two Fort Wayne districts of the homing pigeon fanciers from Springfield, Mo., Saturday and Sunday, was disappointing. Ninety-seven birds were released at 4:30 Saturday morning and the first bird to arrive in the city reached Louis Gepfert's loft at 9:04 Sunday morning. A northwest wind prevailing at the time of the flight hindered the speed of the birds. Next Sunday the interstate concourse will be from Springfield, and entries will be made from Toledo, Fort Wayne, Columbus, Cincinnati, Chicago and Milwaukee.

Remarkable Allen County Family in Which No Trace of Race Suicide Trend is Found

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Sapp and Children, of St. Joseph Township.

The Sentinel is permitted to present herewith the picture of a remarkable Allen county family, in which eleven children daily gather with father and mother about the family hearthstone. It is a Roosevelitian family—the type of happy American home which delights the president and in which there is no trace of the alleged trend toward race suicide.

The family is that of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Sapp, well-to-do and highly esteemed residents of St. Joseph township. Mr. and Mrs. Sapp are both natives of Allen county, the husband about 50 and the wife 42 years of age. They have been the parents of fourteen children. Three of the children have died, but the eleven shown in the picture with the parents all are living at the old home, and none of them are married.

The children, named in order from the eldest down to the babe, are: Jerry, Granville, Roy, Golda, Zoa, Doc, Georgia, Charles, Nona, Tony and Jeanette Sapp. There are no twins. Like the parents, all of them were born in St. Joseph township, and have always lived there. Mrs. Sapp was, prior to her marriage, Miss Nettie Notestine, a daughter of the late Peter Notestine, a pioneer resident of Allen county.

It would be difficult indeed, to find a happier family than that in the Sapp home. Kindly in disposition and solicitous for each other's happiness, both parents and children are fond of company and delight in entertaining friends in their hospitable home. The parents are members of the Church of Christ at Harlan, and their home is frequently the scene of the social gatherings of the church. In addition to other accomplishments, nearly every member of the family is a musician, and they have a well-organized orchestra, which plays exceedingly well.

Though fairly successful in a material way in Allen county, Mr. Sapp has just sold his eighty-acre farm in Allen county and will shortly remove to Texas to engage in farming, and it is his cherished hope in that newer country of cheaper land to be able to provide a farm for each of his children and that himself and his wife may live to see each of them nicely settled in life and developed from youth into good, substantial, respected citizens. In their removal to their western home Mr. and Mrs. Sapp will take with them the kindliest wishes of a very wide circle of Allen county friends and neighbors, who know them well and esteem them highly.

C. A. HOOD RE-ELECTED.

He Was Chosen Superintendent of Baptist Sunday School.

C. A. Hood was on Sunday re-elected superintendent of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church. He had declined a re-election as it was necessary for him to be absent from the city on account of business engagements, but the Sunday school refused the reason. Walter Smoot was chosen assistant superintendent and will have charge in Mr. Hood's absence. Rev. N. A. Harkness, of the theological college of Chicago university, has been secured to assist in the work during the summer months, as the pastor, Rev. Vichert, and Assistant Pastor Tipton will be away on their vacations.

BURNED IN BED.

Charles Michaels, of West Jefferson street, was informed Saturday that his brother, Frank, had been burned to death at Newcastle, Pa. The man was in the habit of smoking while in bed, and it is thought that he must have gone to sleep and the bed clothing ignited from his cigar. He was a number of years ago a resident of this city.

OUR SPECIAL SUITS HAVE CAUGHT ON

Copyright 1907 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

LAST MONDAY we placed on sale, in addition to our immense stock of fine suits, 800 Hart, Schaffner & Marx fine wool hand-tailored suits. They are divided into two lots.

500 SUITS ARE MARKED $15—In this line you will find not only light and dark mixed patterns, but also black cheviots, blue serges, blue unfinished worsteds and fancy serges. Not a suit in the line that you can buy in any other store in the state for less than $20 and the most of them are $22 suits.

300 SUITS MARKED $25—Nearly all of these suits are made from fine imported fabrics. Every suit is at least a $30 suit and the most of them are $32 and $35 suits.

MANY OTHER SPECIALS UNTIL JULY 4th—We are giving many other specials in every department. We said a week ago that we expected to increase our business several thousand dollars this month. If the next two weeks are like the past week our business will go way beyond our expectations. The men for miles around Fort Wayne have learned to believe what we say in our "ads," and when we say that we are selling Hart, Schaffner & Marx pure wool, hand-tailored suits from $5 to $10 less than they can be bought in any other store in the state—The people believe it and they know it is worth saving. Out-of-town people know that it is worth a trip to Fort Wayne.

CAN'T STAND ROOSEVELT NOHOW AND QUITS TRYING

President's Ways Give a Deal of Offense to Chancellor Day.

Syracuse, N. Y., June 17.—In an interview on President Roosevelt, Chancellor Day, of Syracuse university, yesterday said:

"For the high office of president of the United States I have the most profound respect, nor would I as an American, permit any disrespect to the ceremony and honor we all desire for that office, but I cannot help realizing that if Andrew Johnson had abrogated his position for selfinterest, or, let us say, by faults of impulse and egoism, one-third as much as Mr. Roosevelt has, he would not only have been impeached but relieved of office.

"I often think when I hear men say what a strenuous, active, alert man this president is, how much better it would be if we could get a man in office who would just keep quiet and think for a year or two.

"Some one has said Mr. Roosevelt's conduct as president resembled the methods of a local candidate running for sheriff. Think of a man in that tremendous office who cannot go for a horseback ride without jumping a hurdle for cameras, who thanks the engineer of a locomotive for doing his duty, who can't keep his coat tails down when he goes for a walk, because he won't even allow them to keep up with him!"

Sees Lack of Poise in Roosevelt.

It seemed as though the chancellor's personal dislike of the president was based upon the more intimate revelations of his character and as though he were passing judgment upon a delinquent campus reveler whose "pranks" indicated disrespect for the ordinary rules of presidential conduct.

"You think Mr. Roosevelt lacks dignity?" he was asked.

"Since John Hay's death," said the chancellor, "Mr. Roosevelt's official poise has been, to say the least, unsteady. Hay was a great diplomat and his influence over the president was singularly gratifying to the national peace of mind. No other man ever has been able to manage him, and so we have fallen under the spell of a new sensation to Americans, the sensation of being governed.

"Why have we renounced the threefold government for this most un-American policy of a one man power? Granted that a large part of the president's official obligation is to keep watch upon the greed of great private enterprises, that they do not crush the freedom of the people, yet that privilege does not extend to him the right of an individual single authority over the federal sentinels of public welfare: it does not charge him with the electric fluid of unvarying righteousness, nor does it permit him to establish a degree of the respect or censure we should measure out to one another as citizens in a law abiding land.

Nation Bullied, He Says.

"We are literally bullied into a state of riotous excitement against this, that, and the other, by a system of commissionary investigation, by committees employed to act according to instructions or lose their jobs. Without these instructions they would be unable to pursue the strange occupations to which they are appointed, so ignorant are they of industries they are detailed to examine.

"I am only a humble university president, remote from actual conflict of these things, but from a night thirty-three years ago, when I heard that wonderful orator, Wendell Phillips, foreshadow the conditions that are with us now, I have been thinking and studying the shifting quicksands of public sentiment.

"As a matter of fact, my relations with Mr. Archbold, who lives in Syracuse, and whose financial gifts to this university may be considered as an expression of pride in the progress of his home town, dates nearly twenty-five years back. We have always been close personal friends. My tenure of this office is not dependent in any way upon my opinion of trusts. If it were based upon that distinction I should avoid any discussion about them as the safer course to pursue.

"The swollen fortune is circumstantial evidence of mistaken means to attain an end in the conduct of some trusts. It is not with the actual, normal opinion of public sentiment against corporations that I have any quarrel, but with the sinister intrigue of the political means that are used to incite the passions of the people against the individuals and their legal rights."

ROOSEVELT HEARS SERMON.

Begins Summer Custom of Attending Sunday Morning Services.

Oyster Bay, L. I., June 17.—President Roosevelt recommenced yesterday his summer custom of attending morning service at Christ church. In Washington the president attends the Dutch Reformed church, but, as there is no congregation of that denomination at Oyster Bay, he is a regular attendant at the Episcopal church here during vacation. Rev. Henry Homer Washburn preaches the sermons to which the president listens.

Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Ethel, Achie, and Quentin accompanied the president to church in the morning. In consequence of the president's attendance Dr. Washburn's congregation has greatly increased. The president sits in a pew well to the front.

The congregation remained in their seats until he had passed out, but there was a large gathering of village folk and summer visitors waiting outside to catch a glimpse of the president. He got into his carriage at once and drove off, bowing right and left in response to the greeting of friends.

MAY HAVE NEW THEATER.

A movement has been on foot for several months here for the erection of another vaudeville house, but the promoters have been working quietly, and have not discussed their plans publicly. George Trier is one of the men most interested in the project, and he says that the theater will be opened in the fall, but the location has not been selected. Overtures have been made to the big vaudeville circuit managers and encouragement received.

WILL INCORPORATE WITH A CAPITAL STOCK OF $200,000

Fort Wayne Hotel Company is Organizing This Afternoon.

Formal organization of the Fort Wayne Hotel company, with a capital stock of $200,000, will occur late this afternoon at a meeting to be held at the Anthony Wayne club. This is the company which has been promoted by Louis F. Curdes to erect a modern hotel at West Berry and Harrison streets, utilizing the site of the old Berry Street M. E. church.

Articles of incorporation were prepared this morning by Attorneys W. H. Shambaugh and W. J. Vesey, and it is expected that a board of nineteen directors will be chosen. It is said there is a likelihood that Charles McCulloch may be chosen president of the company, and among the men who are likely to be upon the board of directors are E. C. Rurode, A. D. Cressler, O. N. Guildin, W. J. Vesey, C. H. Worden, C. A. Dunkelberg, W. M. Griffin, M. Baltes, Charles McCulloch, L. F. Curdes, W. H. Shambaugh and T. F. Thieme. Officers will be elected by the board of directors after it is chosen.

C. E. Richards, a hotel architect of Columbus, O., is in the city to submit plans to the new company after it shall be organized.

LOOKS PROMISING.

Many Concerns are Figuring on Lighting Plant Plans.

Scores of construction and material men have been working for the last two weeks on the plans for the city electric lighting plant and when the bids are opened a week from today the bidding is expected to be lively. The matter has been widely advertised and contractors are coming from all parts of the country to have a look at the work.

WENT TO TEA

And It Wound Her Bobbin.

Tea drinking frequently affects people as badly as coffee. A lady in Salisbury, Md., says that she was compelled to abandon the use of coffee a good many years ago, because it threatened to ruin her health and that she went over to tea drinking, but finally she had dyspepsia so bad that she had lost twenty-five pounds and no food seemed to agree with her.

She further says: "At this time I was induced to take up the famous food drink, Postum, and was so much pleased with the results that I have never been without it since. I commenced to improve at once, regained my twenty-five pounds of flesh and went some beyond my usual weight.

"I know Postum to be good, pure and healthful, and there never was an article, and never will be, I believe, that does so surely take the place of coffee, as Postum Food Coffee. The beauty of it all is that it is satisfying and wonderfully nourishing. I feel as if I could not sing its praises too loud." Read Road to Wellville," in packages. "There's a Reason."

One Piece Corset Cover Pattern

—BY MRS. JANE FORD—

The corset cover design shown in the accompanying illustration is in one piece, and for this reason is especially desirable for wear under lingerie waists. Having a fitted peplum which keeps the corset cover in place and does away with all fulness over the hips, makes it a particularly good style for stout figures. It can, however, be made without this skirt effect.

The patterns is cut in eight sizes, from thirty-two to forty-six inches bust measure. For a thirty-six inch bust it requires one and one-quarter yards of material thirty-six inches wide and two and three-eighth yards of beading if used on both neck and waist.

For the benefit of amateurs who make garments like this pattern I want to suggest finishing all seams with French fells that are not joined by beading. The same finish is used where the top of the corset cover joins the beading and also where the embroidered edge is attached. If beading is used at the waist line, a piece of muslin should be stitched underneath to give strength.

To make a French fell sew the seams first on the right side and trim them close to the row of stitching, then turn the corset cover and sew a seam on the wrong side to cover the raw edge. When putting lace on, gather it by pulling the thread that runs through the top. Place the right side of the lace and garment together and overseam it.

Such a garment will be pretty when plain, but if embroidered with flowers, initials, monograms, etc., should be decidedly attractive. If small designs are selected for decoration, violets, daisies, forget-me-nots, rose buds, maiden-hair ferns and ivy leaves are all suitable. The embroidery may be done in outline or solid work, known as the French or satin stitch. The stitchery should be of fine marking cotton and not with silk, as the latter does not look well when laundered.

WIFE DEMANDS DIVORCE AFTER THIRTY-FOUR LONG YEARS

Says Her Husband Made a Target of Her—The Court News.

Cassius Marcellus Rouzer has been sued for divorce by his good wife Anna, to whom he was married thirty-four years ago, but who says things about him indicating that time has not held firmly the bonds that were welded in September, 1872. She says that some ten or fifteen years ago he contracted the habit of drinking to excess and that at one time while he was drinking in a saloon he was robbed of $8. He flew home in a towering rage, she says, and accused her of going through him and because she would not turn up the coin he tried to stab her.

Another time he threw a hammer at her and barely missed her and again he once had delirium tremens, according to her story. He is also charged with using vile language, failure to provide for his family and forcing the wife and children to work out and keep the pot boiling. They live at 1405 Boone street.

A few weeks ago Cassius Marcellus was in the city court for drunkenness and at that time the wife intended to relate her entire married life had she not been shut off by the court and threatened with contempt proceedings. Now, if this is the same Cassius Marcellus, and the address is the same, liquor certainly changes him into a roaring lion, for that day he had little to say and got off under an indefinite continuance.

Witte Case Placed on Trial.

The case of August H. Witte against Augusta Witte for divorce was placed on trial in the superior court this morning. The first call was for a man reporter as some language was expected that might shock Miss Ritter. Homer C. Underwood was appointed. The principal contention in the case is for the custody of their child, a girl of about four years.

Court Notes.

Lissie A. Woods has been granted a divorce from Charles H. Woods and allowed to resume her maiden name of Wilcox.

Asad Welly has obtained a judgment against Kaleel Teen for $101.

Glenna Kirchefer has obtained a divorce from Clarence Kirchefer with the restriction that she shall not marry for two years. He was charged with failure to provide.

William McCammick was adopted in the circuit court today by William Ward and his name was changed to Ward.

Quite a number of Sunday school workers will leave tomorrow to attend the state Sunday school convention at Kokomo. The party will leave on the limited interurban car at 7:30 o'clock, and among the number will be Prof. T. M. Miller, Miss Anna Philley, Mrs. C. W. Bussard, Mrs. Carrie Tinkham, Mrs. Cornelius Miller, Mrs. M. A. Mason, Mrs. W. S. Rehrer and Mrs. C. M. Kenyon.

MISS HANKER GETS A CUP.

Fort Wayne Woman Highly Honored by Dancing Teachers.

A dispatch from Atlantic City, N. J., to the Philadelphia Item, under date of June 9, says: "Miss Hulda Hanker, of Fort Wayne, Ind., prominently identified with the International Masters of Dancing association, whose fourteenth annual convention closed here last night, was presented with a beautiful silver loving cup. In making the presentation, the fact was commented upon that besides being an originator of new and advanced ideas in dancing, Miss Hanker was a Delsartian of the highest type, and her combination of Delsarte movements, with dancing, made her one of the most remarkable teachers of dancing in the world."

Smart Surplice Waist Pattern

—BY MRS. JANE FORD—

Separate blouses continue to be popular, and they are so convenient, as well as pretty, that it is not likely they will lose their hold on the world of fashion. However, girls tire of the regulation shirt waist, and as some half dozen or more of these separate waists should be included in every wardrobe, it is well to vary them in design. The surplice design is always worn and is becoming to the majority of girls. The one shown in the accompanying illustration has a removable chemisette, which will be effective made either from material like the waist or of all-over lace.

Fashions in sleeves are so varied that perhaps a few words on that subject will help in making a choice for new summer bodices. Sleeves in the tailored waists, whether of woolen, silk or tub material, are made full length, with cuffs varying from two to six inches in depth. These have a considerable fulness at the armholes and a slight looseness at the cuff. A decided puff characterizes the sleeve of the lingerie waist, which is also the three-quarters length. In these there is a tendency to greater fulness at the elbows and less at the armhole, which points toward the "1830" style. It is prophesied that the autumn will see both these and the very tight variety in fashion.

Very dainty waists of silk or net have two length short sleeves, the shorter ones ending about two inches above the elbow. The three-quarters lengths, composed entirely of ruffles, is also much used in fancy blouses. The foundation of this sleeve is a close fitted lining of lawn or net, on which are sewed the circular or gathered ruffles.

For the girl who is planning her wardrobe so that she may have a few dressy waists to take with her on a summer vacation trip nothing could be prettier than a surplice waist of foulard, with several chemisettes of different materials made to be worn with it.

If you have not heard the Pianola in its latest improved form—with the Themodist and with the Metrostyle—you are not competent to express an opinion on it, any more than you would be able to judge of automobiles from having inspected only one of the earliest models.

There is no reason why you should not become posted on the very latest improvements in Piano-players. It will be a pleasure to play for you the latest model of Pianola Piano and show you the wonderful progress that has been made in this field.

Just a word of caution: If you are about to invest in a Piano-player or player-piano, you want the best—The Pianola and the Pianola Piano hold by far the pre-eminent position. There are many other makes of Piano-players, but the sales of the Pianola amount to more than all of the others combined. The reason lies in its musical and mechanical perfection.

The underlying importance of this subject makes it almost imperative to investigate it—and investigate it now.

FRICANDEAU OF VEAL LARDED.

This is a thick cut of three or four pounds from the leg. Remove all skin and tendon and pound with a potato masher until almost as tender as pulp. This is the French method of treating veal and is an essential thing to do. Beef, on the other hand, is ruined by the pounding process, which breaks the fibers and lets out the juices. After the pounding, form into a loaflike shape and lard the upper part with delicate strips of fat and salt pork. Season with salt and pepper, sear in hot fat, sprinkle with just a suspicion of powdered sugar and roast in rather a cool oven. When ready to serve garnish with carrots boiled or fried and cut in long strips, peas and potato balls.

S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES

An old sore or ulcer is only a symptom, an outlet for the impurities and poisons which are in the blood, and as long as this vital fluid remains in this impure, contaminated state the place will never heal. The application of salves, washes, powders, etc., may cause the spot to scab over, but a fresh outpouring of diseased matter from the blood starts it again, and thus it goes on, gradually growing worse and slowly affecting the entire health of the sufferer. There are many ways in which the blood becomes contaminated and poisoned. A long spell of sickness breeds disease germs in the system, the failure of the eliminative members to remove the refuse and waste matter of the body, the excessive use of mineral medicines in certain diseases, all infect the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later is manifested by a sore that refuses to heal. Persons with inherited blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with sores and ulcers. The taint may lie dormant during young, vigorous life, but when middle age is reached or passed and the natural energies begin to grow weaker, the tissues in some weak point break down and a chronic sore is formed and kept open by the constant drainage of impure matter from the blood. If the cause is not removed the sore will continue to grow worse by eating deeper into the flesh, festering, discharging, and slowly undermining the constitution. S. S. S. heals old sores by going down to the very bottom of the trouble, driving out the impurities and building up the entire circulation. When S. S. S. has removed the cause the blood becomes rich and healthy, the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, and soon the place is cured. Do not depend on external applications, which do not reach the blood, but begin the use of S. S. S. and remove of the cause, and then the sore must heal. DECATUR TOOK HOME A FLUKE VICTORY AND WAS PROUD

Shamrocks Played in Bad Luck and Lost the Game —The Scores.

Captain William Y. Cherry, of the Shamrocks, consented unwillingly yesterday afternoon to put in an unseasoned pitcher in the game with Decatur because "Cy" Alberts begged off on the ground that he was not in condition and as a result a Fort Wayne and Springfield trolley car went back to the metropolis victory—a fluke at that—and bountiful victory—a fluke at that—and bountiful supply of joy and pride.

With Alberts in the box from the start, and he is not pitching the article of ball he used to, Decatur would never have seen a lead at any time and would have had a different kind of a trolley car load to take home. Prough's all right. He started as the captain of ilng hill and if he and the team behind him hadn't gotten rattled when the first firing was heard in the distance he would probably have been sitting on an Ossian dry goods box today telling his friends how he did it.

He has everything but experience and when he gets a bit more of that you can look out for him. Cherry took him out because the club got wobbly behind him and needed an old head to straighten out the kinks. The day was the first hot one the lads have put through and it was hard going. The crowd was bigger, testifying to the popularity of the Shamrocks and all of the conditions were good except that first inning which was pulled off something after the following style:

Nash got soaked on the uniform. A more specific location of the souk would be embarrassing and is unnecessary at this point. He took a base and when Behringer bunted Prough tried to watch the two runners and the ball and he lost the latter allowing a hit. On Linderbeck's grounder to short Behringer died at second and Nash went to stop three. Louie Gage came in fast on Burns's little bump and made a rattling stop but he didn't have time to steady himself and the throw to the plate was bad and Nash got over. Linderbeck stole second and a wild pitch let him complete the circuit. Then Webber hit to middle for a bag and Burns tried for home but was caught between bases and after a most exciting chase Cherry missed a throw to cut off the tally and the runners slipped in on his handkerchief packet. Prough was pulled at this point.

With Smith down in the Shamrock half Ayett threw wild on Koons' bounder and Cherry lumbered one to middle that got past Linderbeck for a couple of sacks. Alberts started the third with a gift to Behringer who went to third when Jack Smith threw wild on Linderbeck's effort and tallied after Burns' fly had been caught in right. Behringer increased the Decatur holding in the first half of the seventh round when he hit to right, annexed second, got third while Albert was waiting for Linderbeck's punt to roll foul and scampered home after Burns' fly had been caught in left.

Shamrock hopes went up in the fourth. Gage got a walk for his patience, Erickson moved him with a sacrifice, Beach got a present, Beach also received a donation and with the bags thickly populated and a head down things looked right. Alberts popped to short and Smith couldn't get a bit. With Alberts out of the way in the seventh, Smith pasted one over second but a foolish attempt to steal out him to the bad. Koons hit to right, Cherry to middle and Behringer made a bum throw on which two tallies were made and that was all. The score:

—Shamrocks.—

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Quinn nipped one for Burns in the seventh that had a two base tag on it.

Koons got under a sky drive in the eighth that added one to his brilliant fielding record for the season.

The Shamrocks had one more hit and didn't have any trouble finding Way but bumped the ball right into somebody's mitt every time.

Gage is picking them up in great style and although he has a boot now and then it is because he goes after them all.

Hoffer caught Alberts in good shape and worked hard.

Alberts will work in the game against Bade Meyers and his Canton team on Thursday. He will work out in the meantime.

C. R. and G. Club, 5; Antwerp, 3.

Against Antwerp yesterday the Corner Rod and Gun club ball team bunched hits in the fourth inning and sent over four runs which practically won the game. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
C. R. and G. C.	5	8	4
Antwerp	3	6	3

Batteries—Burke and Mulvenna; Miller and Dowling.

Summary—

Stolen bases—Centlivre (2). Diller. Sacrifice hit—Simminger. Bases on balls—Off Burke, 3; off Miller, 4. Two-base hit—Burke. Double plays—Heck to Dowling, Johnson to Dowling to Crombley, Centlivre to Smith. Hit by pitched ball—Mulvenna. Struck out—By Burke, 5; by Miller, 2. Wild pitch—Miller. Time of game—1:45. Umpire—Evans. Attendance—800.

Schilds Specials, 9; Elks, 6.

The Schilds Specials defeated the Fort Wayne Elks in an exciting game on the Lake Shore diamond. Meyers struck out thirteen men, while Schilds struck out eleven. The score:

Elks	6	7	4
Schilds Specials	9	9	2

Batteries—Meyers and Crowe; Schilds and Knox.

Elks, 8; Imperials, 5.

The Fort Wayne Elks defeated the Imperials on the Lake Shore diamond 8 to 5. The features of the game were the double play made by Weberruss and Kemyr and the pitching of Arter for the Elks. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Elks	8	12	3
Imperials	5	8	5

Batteries—Arter, Adams and Crowe; McGuire and Koehl.

LOUIS HEILBRONNER HERE.

Louis Heilbronner, the lone scout of the devious trail and talented sleuth for President Hermann, of the Cincinnati base ball team, dropped into Fort Wayne to spend Sunday with his father, S. Heilbronner, of West Wayne street. "Louie" started late in April to criss-cross the United States and Canada in search of live ones for President Hermann and has had success and framed up prospects for a lot more. The southern and eastern minor leagues have claimed his attention and he is now putting the Central League under his microscopic eye. From here he went to South Bend to take a look at the slips in Aggie Grant's forcing heels and later will gyrate to the northwest, with some prospect of getting as far as Seattle. His friends in Fort Wayne were greatly pleased to have him "in their midst" even for so brief a stay.

WILL GET RESULTS—SENTINEL ADS

To contradict certain talk and to put the consuming public in possession of the truth, we say in plain words that no one in this town can sell as good coffee as Arbuckles' Ariosa for as little money.

Misbranded and make-believe Mocha and Java, or coffee sold loose out of a bag or a bin, is not as good value for the money, nor can it be sold at as narrow profit, nor reach the consumer under as favorable conditions.

When you buy Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee you get more than 16 net ozs. of straight, wholesome Brazilian coffee from the largest coffee firm in the world, with that firm's direct assurance that they are giving you the best coffee in the world for the money.

IS YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEADER IN SALVATION ARMY WORK

School children of Fort Wayne are guests of the Salvation Army at the citadel on East Washington street, this afternoon, where Ensign and Mrs. J. G. Watkins provided for them a free treat of ice cream and other delicacies. There was also an entertainment program, with drills, etc., to please the little ones.

The occasion for the gathering is the presence of Lieutenant Colonel J. E. Margetts, of New York, national leader of the young people's work in the Salvation Army, and his able assistant, Staff Captain Ivings, of Detroit. During the afternoon Colonel Margetts delivered an address especially to the children. He is especially successful in juvenile work, and the afternoon program was thoroughly enjoyed by the little ones. Both speakers will be heard again this evening at the citadel.

LIEUT. COL. J. E. MARGETTS, National Salvation Army Leader of Young People's Work.

ROAD NOT SAFE FOR SWAIN.

Father Thrashes Girl's Admirer, Who Passed House "Very Slow."

Clarence, Mo., June 17.—The decision of a jury in Justice Whitby's court at Cherry Box would indicate that a father could prevent a suitor from even passing and repassing his home on the public high, if it were evident that the young man was endeavoring to attract the attention of the daughter, even if it were necessary to soundly thrash the youth. Ed Rhodes, arrayed in his best clothes, drove along the public highway in front of Miss Eva Loft's home "very slow," and then drove back again. The father of the girl went out to the road and harsh words were passed. Loft says he "tapped Rhodes two or three times on the head with a pine stick." Rhodes had Loft arrested but the jury acquitted him.

Bargains for Women

A Big Cut of one third off the price of all Women's Suits, Coats, Silk Waists and Millinery.

MENTER & ROSENBLOOM CO., the largest Credit Clothiers in the world and operators of 72 retail stores with a store in this city at 1001 Calhoun street, announce that beginning today they will sell every Women's Suit, Coat, Silk Waist or Hat in the store at one third off the regular price.

You ca nmake the reduction yourself, the price tags are the same as they have been all season. For instance, a suit or Coat that is marked $24 you can have for $16.

Thirty dollar suits are now..$20.00
Twenty dollar suits are now..$13.33
Eighteen dollar suits are now..$12.00
Fifteen dollar suits are now..$10.00
Twelve dollar suits are now...$8.00
Ten dollar suits are now.....$6.66

And you can have credit too, if you desire—that is what makes this wonderful offer more remarkable. You can buy at one third off; have your purchase charged and pay in small payments of $1.00 a week.

There's is a wonderfully good stock of women's stylish garments here and every woman in need of new clothing should call as early as possible.

Mr. Thos. D. Lane, the manager of the Fort Wayne store, said that when he got the order to close out women's goods at one third off, he thought it was a mistake, and telegraphed the Home office of Menter & Rosenbloom Co., at Rochester, N. Y., to confirm the order, which they did. Go and see these great bargains early while choosing is best. You don't need money to take advantage of this great offer.—Your credit is good.

STRAW HATS.

We want to call your attention to our $1 and $1.50 Straw Sailors. We can always sell $3, $4 and $5 hats but the cheaper hats have been slow sellers with us. This year we are selling a hat at $1.50 that we believe is a $2 hat in any other store.

A NEW COUNTY FAIR.

Unique Entertainment to Be Given June 26 and 27.

A number of local people who are getting up an entertainment that will be given in the old church building, corner Berry and Harrison streets, on Wednesday and Thursday, June 26 and 27, call themselves the "County Fair Association." Managers, committees and those who will take principal parts, are well enough known to insure success and the program certainly sounds mysterious, which will serve to increase the interest in the affair which has been in progress for many weeks. The announcements give the following outline of what to expect. The proceeds will go to the treasury of St. Margaret's Guild, of the Episcopal church.

Details are ready for the public to this extent:

General Manager—James Haberly.

Executive Committee—Mr. Haberly, Miss Jessie Lowry, Miss Florence Barrett, Miss Hilda Lane and Miss Elinor Bond.

Business Committee—Miss Lowry, Rev. E. W. Averill and Dan Beers.

Amusement Manager—J. B. Archer.

A PHILADELPHIA PASTOR DELIVERS SIZZLING FAREWELL

Was Not Swell Enough for His Congregation—Gets Even at Finish.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 17.—Because he appeared in the pulpit wearing unpressed trousers and because his facial lines had impressed some members of his congregation as "harsh and forbidding," the Rev. Dr. James H. Ecob has been forced to resign from the fashionable First Unitarian church, Twenty-first and Chestnut streets.

Yesterday morning Dr. Ecob preached his valedictory sermon, bidding farewell to what he termed "a bridge whist coterie—a pink tea party."

This and many other rhetorical shots apparently hit the bull's eye, for from time to time some dignified member of the exclusive congregation would make a hurried exit, nose in the air. The church is one of the oldest and most aristocratic of its denomination in the country, and Dr. Ecob is one of the most democratic of speakers, taking a delight in expressing his views freely on the equality of man.

Hurls Defiance at Outset.

Dr. Ecob took as the topic of his farewell sermon the subject, "The Minister of Today," and as his text Matthew xi., 17, "We have piped unto you and ye have not danced. We have mourned unto you and ye have not lamented."

This was an unmistakably defiant note at the start, but the plain pastor's well dressed hearers settled themselves comfortably, as if confident they could stand it.

"I propose to speak with perfect simplicity and plainness," began the pastor, without a touch of irony in his voice.

"Every denominational conflict, every heresy trial, every parish scandal, every treacherous attack upon a pastor is invariably justified and sanctified by the wornout plea, 'for the good of the church.' Is it not time that some voice were lifted up for the good of the ministry?"

Symptoms of uneasiness were discernible in some of the congregation.

Only "Decorative" Ministers Wanted.

"Many ministers are deeply resenting the demand of the church for simply neutral, decorative ministry—ministry punctilious, ministry that tiptoes gently and graciously at 4 o'clock teas and smiles benignly at bridge whist tables—ministry whose pulpit utterances have the quality of what is known by country people as 'fox fire,' a pale, phosphorescent glimmer, the product of decayed wood."

At the reference of 4 o'clock teas and bridge whist, two of the nicely gowned women in the congregation marched frowningly to the door, while others moved uneasily as if inclined to give similar expression to their disapprobation.

"Many churches, especially those called important," went on the undaunted minister, "want in the pulpit ony this dim, lambent, innocuous light, the product of venerable decayed thought.

Poor Man Should Avoid Pulpit.

"Another question respecting ministers is that of salary. The average man, without an independent income, has no business in a Protestant pulpit. The average wage of the minister is below that of a day laborer. Yet a laborer can live in such a house as he pleases, wear such clothes as he pleases and fix the scale of his household expenses. But for a minister all these things are determined by the church."

LONG SLEEP ENDS IN DEATH.

Thomas C. Webster, Who Was Stricken in Kansas City Depot, Succumbs.

Kansas City, Mo., June 17.—Thomas C. Webster's sleep of seventy-five days at the General hospital ended in death yesterday. For many days each night found him a little weaker, and physicians said he could not live unless he was aroused.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning he was given a light meal through a tube. It consisted of two eggs, milk, and a little whisky. An hour and a half later Webster died.

Webster was on the way to his brother's home in Georgia on April 2 and went to sleep in the Union depot. He was taken to the Helping Hand Institute and thence to the General hospital. His home was in Horseshoe Bend, Idaho.

No matter how big and fat you are we have a suit to fit you.

HE MET DEATH BENEATH WHEELS OF TRAIN AT TOLEDO

Thomas Cragg, of Fort Wayne, Killed in Shocking Accident.

Thomas Cragg, 21 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cragg, 412 East Taber street, met instant death in a shocking accident Saturday at Toledo, where he had been employed for the past six months as a machinist in the Pope Motor Car works.

When he quit work at noon Saturday Cragg jumped on a passing freight train to ride to his home. A little later he either fell or was thrown from the train, alighting on the opposite track immediately in front of an oncoming train from the opposite direction. In an instant the engine had passed over Cragg's body, severing his head. His brother, who happened to be near by, was the first to reach the scene of the accident.

The remains were brought to Fort Wayne Sunday evening and were removed to the family home. "Tom" Cragg was well known in Fort Wayne and was highly esteemed. He was an excellent young man of fine character, and was a member of the Third Presbyterian church. Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home and at 2:30 from the Third Presbyterian church, Rev. Frank M. Fox officiating.

DRUNKEN BEES STIR PASADENA.

Sip Fermented Orange Juice and Raise "High Jinks" Generally.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 17.—Bees, hilarious and made proud with wine, have aroused the fashionable residents of Pasadena by their mirthful and stinging pranks, and the majesty of the law has been appealed to in the hope of suppressing their gayety.

District Attorney Fredericks was visited Saturday by several residents of Pasadena, including a few owners of small apiaries, who complained to him that the bees and flies of the Crown City are making nuisances of themselves by becoming intoxicated upon fermented orange juice.

The residents allege that the proprietors of the Disbrow nursery have a large force of Japanese employed extracting seeds from partially rotted oranges, and in the process of squeezing the seeds from the oranges a small stream of orange juice flows from the place, which attracts million of flies and bees, which become intemperate. The nursery uses the seeds for planting.

BELIEVE CHILD WAS KIDNAPED.

Searching Parties Out After Missing Ludington Boy.

Ludington, Mich., June 17.—After three days of diligent search by fifty people no trace has been found of A. C. Davis, the 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Davis. The disappearance of the lad is shrouded in deep mystery. Lifesavers have thoroughly dragged both the river and lake without result. And every building and all neighboring woods have been carefully searched. It is now believed the boy has been kidnaped, for it is impossible to account for his disappearance in any other way. The distracted parents are crazed with grief over the affair, and the entire country for miles around is being scoured by the big searching parties.

BAR MEN WITH BUT ONE CHILD.

Families in County Where Six Is Low Limit Frown on Indianian.

Charlotte, Tenn., June 17.—Because he had only one child an Indiana man named John Namm, who moved here recently from Mount Vernon, was ostracized by residents of Charlotte, who pointed him out as a horrible example of race suicide. Things were made so unpleasant for Namm that he and his wife and child left town after a stay here of three weeks, going to Milan, Tenn. Every family in this county has at least six children in it. Sixteen boys and two girls call J. N. Parrotte papa: Alexander Cunningham has twelve children and Pitts Powers, according to the latest local census, has thirteen.

BIG STORM COMING, SAYS HICKS.

Forecaster Finds Great Sunspot and Sees Trouble This Week.

St. Louis, June 17.—Between Wednesday and Friday of this week, because of the new sun spots, there will be terrific electrical storms in this country. Rev. Iri R. Hicks, weather forecaster, who predicted the Galveston tidal wave, the St. Louis cyclone and the recent tornadoes and hailstorms in this section, says so. Hicks Saturday discovered a sunspot of huge proportions. He asserts it is moving from the east to the west line of the sun. Hicks says it is the largest seen on the sun for many years.

ANDREW FOSTER, VETERAN MERCHANT TAILOR, PASSES AWAY

End Came at Hope Hospital After Short Illness—Other Deaths.

Andrew Foster, for many years a merchant tailor in Fort Wayne and very widely known, died at 5 o'clock this morning at Hope hospital at the age of 69 years. Mr. Foster had been

ANDREW FOSTER,

Well Known Merchant Tailor, Who Has Passed Away.

in failing health for the past year and his condition grew so critical three weeks ago that he was removed to the hospital to undergo a surgical operation, but intervening complications in the case prevented his recovery.

Mr. Foster's home was at 1213 Fairfield avenue. He was a native of Germany, born in Bavaria, November 29, 1838, but at the age of twenty years came to America. He worked for a time in New York, Washington and in Virginia. Later coming westward he was employed for some years as a cutter in Warsaw, removing to Fort Wayne in 1872. After working at various shops he embarked in the merchant tailoring business on his own account, and for more than twenty-five years conducted an establishment on West Wayne street, opposite The Sentinel building. But a few months ago it was removed to East Wayne street. He was a man of fine character and an excellent citizen, who had many friends. For many years Mr. Foster had been a member of Fort Wayne lodge, No. 14, Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Surviving relatives include the widow and two daughters, the Misses Edith and Lillian Foster.

MEADS.

Thomas Meads, for many years a resident of Allen county, died at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Mason, in New Haven, at the age of 80 years. Death was due to paralysis.

Mr. Meads had been an invalid for many years and had lived a retired life, though the attack which caused his death did not come upon him until a week ago. He was born in Portage county, Ohio, and came to Allen county before the civil war, in which he served as a member of the Thirtieth regiment of Indiana volunteers. He was three times wounded while in the service. Later he returned to Allen county and for some time operated a saw mill and later engaged in farming. Mr. Meads' wife died two years ago, and the surviving relatives include two sisters—Mrs. Mason and Mrs. Henry Culver, the latter residing in Fort Wayne. Dr. M. A. Mason, the dental surgeon, is a nephew of the deceased. Mr. Meads was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 from the residence and at 2 o'clock from the M. E. church at New Haven.

GOUTY.

Thomas A. Gouty, a pioneer resident of Fort Wayne, who for many years conducted a second-hand store and curio shop on South Calhoun street, died Saturday afternoon at his home, 1414 Calhoun street, at the age of 75 years. Death was due to acute indigestion, and was very sudden. He had waited on customers in his store Saturday, but growing fatigued toward evening he retired to his room and lay down to rest, expiring a few minutes later.

Mr. Gouty was born in the east, but he was brought to Fort Wayne as a babe of one year by his parents in 1833, and had resided in this city continuously since that time. Years ago he was connected with the Rhinesmith & Simonson company, later embarking in business upon his own account. He was famous as a collector of old coins and other curios, and was an authority on many antiquities. Surviving relatives include the aged wife, three sons and a daughter—William F. Gouty, of Los Angeles, Cal.; S. Clayton Gouty and Alvin Gouty, and Mrs. Frank A. Bellamy, of this city.

Funeral services from the residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. Dr. Wagenhals of Trinity English Lutheran church.

HEINGARTNER.

Frederick H. Heingartner, 46 years of age, died at 11:15 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of his mother, Mrs. Martin Heingartner, 509 West Main street. Death was due to dropsy.

Mr. Heingartner was a moulder by occupation, and was a son of Martin Heingartnes, a pioneer Fort Wayne merchant tailor whose death occurred twenty-five years ago. Surviving relatives include the mother, two brothers and a sister—Philip Heingartner, of Los Angeles, Calif., and William and Miss Emma Heingartner, of this city.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence and at 2:30 from St. John's Lutheran church.

THIEM.

Katie Thiem, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thiem, of 1917 John street, aged 2 months and 13 days, was found dead in bed about 3 o'clock Sunday morning. The babe was one of twins, the other having died when but one day old.

Funeral services Monday afternoon from St. Peter's Catholic church.

LYBURTUS.

Mrs. Julia Lyburtus, colored, 38 years of age, died at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at Hope hospital. The husband, Theodore Lyburtus, survives.

The remains will be taken to Delaware county, O., for funeral services and interment.

BAUMEISTER.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baumeister, of Walton avenue, died this morning at the age of two days.

SABBATH CRAP GAME CLOSES WITH BIG SHOOT.

in' shoes; wha's that fo.' Two little deuces or a three and a one.

And the copper colored hand gathered the bones up and with many mysterious incantations tried to make them do his bidding while half a dozen pairs of eyes watched to see that he didn't call into action anything more modern than an incantation for bones roll funny some times.

Enter Henry Warfield. Henry had a loose nickel or two and he wanted a chance to swell his pile. He butted in and got a bet and somebody hit his wad with a couple of passes and a natural and he went to the scrap heap. According to the statement of Hamilton, who was in the city court this morning with his right arm and left hand in bandages and minus any foot gear, he was in the kitchen at the time. When he got back the game was broken up.

"Look, a heah, Dave Warfield, ever time you come over heah sumthin' or nother happens. You can't come in heah and 'spect to sew up dis game ever time it's a goin.' Some o' you niggahs think you owns this heah Brooklyn avenue, but I got the material in the house to show you you don't."

By materials Hamilton meant a deadly weapon known variously as a gun, revolver and smoke wagon and he edged toward the bed to get hold of it. Warfield left with the expressed intention of "makin' that niggah use that gun," and when he came back he had a shot gun. "I kinder cracked de do' open a little to see if he was a comin'" continued Hamilton, "and fust think I knowed he had done blazed away and shot me in the ahm. Ah had to change my gun to the other hand to git a shot and I tried him twicet but I didn't hit him.

Warfield was in the city court this morning on the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill and went to jail in default of a bond of $200. Also Hamilton. The latter is not badly hurt but it will be a long time before he is a shining success as a crap shooter. The game was in progress Sunday afternoon and is a regular Sunday affair with a night performance thrown in when the players can get together enough money to make it interesting.

The police were called and got Thomas Wilson, Oscar Hobson, Frank Perry, George Williams and Henderson Price, all of whom were charged with frequenting a gambling house. After the evidence had been heard Judge Skelton took under advisement for thirty days the cases against the men found in the place but held each of them as witnesses in the other cases under bonds of $50 each.

Other Cases.

Celestine Parnin, Frenchman, Duck alley, got drunk and choked his wife. After he had been warned he went out to get a brick to renew the attack and Patrolman Johnston got him. His case was continued until tomorrow.

Vincent Miller, bum, got drunk and defaced a lot of monuments for H. L. Bates. Got $5 and costs.

William Mills got queer jag and reported excitedly that his father and brother had been slain. One and costs because he gave the police so much trouble.

John Van Every got drunk and missed his front porch. Found on somebody else's and on account of wife and three children let go.

George Anderson, fresh young fellow who thought it would be a good joke to steal two salt shakers and a spoon from the Maryland restaurant. Said he didn't mean it and never in trouble before. Fined $1 and costs and given a day in jail, but sentence was suspended. Made to return stolen articles and apologize.

Frank Bradley, exercise boy following the ponies. Determined to cut the ponies and on his way to his home at Louisville, Ky. Had the Cuban itch. Allowed to go. John Ziegler, his partner, held until tomorrow.

Harry L. Wiebke don't like to support his wife. Riot act read to him and told to increase the allowance he formerly promised to pay. Said he would.

Theodore Walker, assault and battery case but nobody seemed to know who he assaulted or when and he was let go.

THE MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., June 17.—The wheat market today opened quietly and with a light trade. The prediction of the weather was for fair skies and continued high temperature and this was considered ideal conditions for all the crops. After the first half hour wheat became firm on a fair amount of buying. September opened a shade to ¼@⅜c lower at 92c to 92¼c, sold at 91⅞c and then advanced to ¼@⅜c lower at 92c to 92¼c, sold at 91⅞c and then advanced to 92⅜c. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 513 cars.

The wheat market became strong late in the day on damage reports from the southwest, it being claimed that the hot weather is now burning up the grain without giving it sufficient time to ripen. September advanced to 94@94¼c. The close was strong with September 1½@1⅝c higher at 93⅝c.

The corn market opened easier, but became firm on buying by commission houses. September opened ⅛@¼c lower at 51⅞c to 52⅛c and advanced to 52⅜c. Local receipts were 586 cars with 172 of contract grade.

September corn advanced to 53c. The close was strong with September ⅛@⅜c higher at 52⅝c.

The oats market opened unsettled but later became firm along with corn and wheat. September opened ⅛@¼c lower to ⅛@¼c higher at 35⅜c to 35⅝c and sold at 35⅜@35⅞c.

The provision market was dull but firm. September pork opened 10c higher at $15.97½. September lard opened 10c higher at $8.87½. Ribs opened 7½c higher at $8.67½.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, June 17.—The first trading of the week in stocks was dull and listless and slight fractional declines resulted generally from the small offerings. Union Pacific fell ¾. There was a rise of ¾ in Rock Island.

Efforts to market securities caused some additional recessions in a half dozen prominent stocks, but prices soon rebounded to where they closed Saturday. Brooklyn Transit was taken readily and advanced to 53. Delaware & Hudson also gained a point, but St. Louis Southwestern yielded 1. Central Leather preferred 1½ and Chicago Great Western Debentures 2 points.

Offerings of stocks became so scanty that light bidding carried prices upward to advances for Union Pacific of 1⅜. Reading 1¼ points and Northern Pacific. Atchison, Chicago Great Western preferred, Pennsylvania, Southern Railway preferred and Federal Mining preferred 1. Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha sold at a decline of 5 points, Manhattan 2¼ and Norfolk & Western 1. Bonds were heavy.

The slight demand which developed at noon was not continued and the market showed slight signs of sagging.

Certain stocks were again in demand in the middle of the afternoon but most of the list was immovable. Business was only nominal, the trading being intensely dull. Virginia-Carolina Chemical lost 1¼.

The market closed fairly steady but inactive. Western sales put prices down. Union Pacific and Reading receding 1. Distillers Securities lost 1. When this profit taking subsided prices hardened again.

CAR ROBBERS AT WORK.

Broke in Eight Cars But Found Nothing They Could Carry Away.

The seals of eight box cars, loaded with freight and left upon a siding near the Wabash freight house, were broken Saturday night and the cars entered, but nothing of value was taken, though some of the cars were loaded with merchandise. The thieves removed a box of shoes from one of the cars, but evidently became frightened and dropped it by the side of the tracks, where some of the employes found it yesterday morning. Special Officer J. D. Sollit, of the Wabash, was summoned from Peru and is at work upon clues which he hopes may lead to the identification of the thieves. The robbery was not reported to the city police headquarters.

MORE MOULDERS BASS WORKS.

Fourteen New Men Joined the Force Yesterday and More Coming.

Dr. G. M. Leslie, of the Bass Foundry and Machine company, said this afternoon that fourteen moulders, who came in yesterday, were added to the force in the foundry departments affected by the strike, and that there are more en route who will arrive tonight. Dr. Leslie said the foundry was in better shape today so far as working force is concerned than it had been at any previous time since the moulders and coremakers went on strike. There was a feeling this morning that the day would develop some new features in the strike situation, but aside from the arrival of the new moulders, nothing transpired up to 3 o'clock. The strike pickets are on duty as usual, though possibly in smaller number, and several of them who were interviewed said that there was absolutely nothing new in the situation.

Saturday the strikers' committee mailed to Mr. Bass the first direct proposition looking towards a settlement of the strike that has been made since the trouble began. It demanded the dismissal of all of the strike-breakers; fixed the minimum wages of the coremakers at $2.25 and the minimum for the moulders at $2.50 and a general increase of 10 per cent; double time for work on holidays and Sundays and time and a half for overtime work; the settlement of grievances by a committee of three, one each from employer an demploye and the two thus selected to choose a third, and requiring a four years' apprenticeship for both moulders and coremakers. No reference was made to a closed shop. The proposition was unsigned, but when Mr. Bass was convinced that it came from the committee representing the strikers, he answered it, stating that none of the eleven clauses in the proposition would ever be complied with; that if the strikers returned to the employ of the Bass Foundry and Machine works it would be as individuals and on the terms which existed before the strike.

HAD A PLEASANT TRIP.

Passenger Conductor Sylvester McMahon, of the Pennsylvania, is on duty again after the most extensive and enjoyable trip of his life. He was gone over a month, visiting all of the points of interest in California, New Mexico, Colorado and Utah. He spent a week with his sister, Mrs. Groves, who reside on a ranch near Rattoon, Ill., and also visited some friends whom he had not seen in thirty years, and was also the guest for awhile of Mrs. Votter, formerly Miss Alice Geiseking, of this city. He also saw Drs. George C. and Will Siemen at Denver. At San Francisco Mr. McMahon saw some of the exciting scenes of the street car employes' strike and either walked or rode in wagons while in that city.

THE NORTHLAND'S CREWS.

Road Foreman of Engines A. L. Lopshire, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana, has assigned the following crews for the Northland Limited, the new flyer on that line: Engineer Milo Ames and Fireman C. Groves and Engineer J. R. Lewis and Fireman J. A. Reading between this city and Grand Rapids and Engineer W. C. Kelker and Fireman E. Thomas and Engineer A. Hiser and Fireman A. H. Cook between this city and Richmond. Another assignment made by Mr. Lopshire is Engineer I. Clem, of this city, to the Detroit-Grand Rapids run, between Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo, with headquarters in the latter city.

APPRENTICES RESUME WORK.

A number of the special apprentices who during the winter and spring months attended school at Purdue, Notre Dame, Fort Wayne and elsewhere, resumed work at the Pennsylvania shops this morning. Among them are Fred Eggeman, of Notre Dame; T. Kelley and D. Benninghoff, Fort Wayne high school; Harry Cook, from Purdue; Thomas Telley, South Bend, and J. B. Grossweg, of Purdue. H. Houser, late of the Majestic theater, also took a position at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

STRUCK WITH SLEDGE.

Blacksmith Charles Koenig, of the Wabash, who was temporarily transferred to Montpelier, Ohio, had several teeth loosened and his lips cut Friday by a glancing blow from a sledge hammer in the hands of a comrade. Mr. Koenig is here pending recovery.

SHOPMAN PAINFULLY HURT.

Machinist Fred Stahl, of the Pennsylvania, received a gash in the back of his head, one and a half inches deep and to the bone, by being struck by a piece of metal called a side cap, while at work in the erecting shop this morning. The company's surgeon was called to dress the wound. Another unfortunate at the shops was Louis Linker, of the planing mills, who got one of his hands too close to a planer's knife and one of his fingers was cut.

AIR BRAKE CAR IN SHOP.

Capt. H. M. Diehl and his air brake instruction car are here, the latter to go into the Pennsylvania shops for a general overhauling and remodelling, which means practically a new car. The equipment of the car now represents a twenty-five car train and if possible the number will be increased until it represents a fifty car train. These changes will probably occupy five or six weeks and in the meantime Captain Diehl will be engaged in another line of work.

PAY CHECKS WENT ASTRAY.

Although the bulletins announced the coming of Samuel Reed, the Wabash paymaster, tomorrow, he would have paid the employes Saturday had not the package containing the checks gone astray. It was sent to Canton and the package which contained the pay checks for the Wheeling and Lake Erie employes came here instead. Mr. Reed was here Saturday and will return this afternoon to distribute the checks among the men.

YESTERDAY'S EXCURSION BUSINESS.

Yesterday's excursion business, with one or two exceptions, was up to expectations. The Wabash brought in over 300 people from Toledo and took 117 to Toledo and 117 to Danville; the Grand Rapids took 567 to Rome City; the C., H. & D. brought in 62 from Findlay; the Nickel Plate had 125 out of Fort Wayne and the Lake Shore took the largest number of the season to the lakes north.

THE POND LILY TRAIN.

The G. R. & I. pond lily train made its first run for the season this morning, when it brought down a number of cottagers and fishermen from Rome City. The train will be in charge of Conductor J. B. Flye, who has been sick for nearly a year, but who is now almost fully recovered, and Engineer George Wagner and Fireman J. Glem will preside in the cab.

CONDUCTOR TO BE CARBUILDER.

William W. Moring, for eight years a conductor on the city street car lines and one of the best in the service, has resigned to take a position as car repairman at the east shops of the Pennsylvania, commencing work there this morning. Mr. Moring is a carpenter by trade.

CROSSING GATES COMPLETED.

Tonight the signal department of the Pennsylvania will complete the installation of the new gates and tower house at the Pennsylvania-Wabash Hanna street crossing, which work has been in progress about a week.

NEW CLERK AT FREIGHT HOUSE

Agent A. L. Gilbert, of the Wabash, has filled a vacancy in his clerical ranks by employing Clinton McClure, of Huntington, late of the Erie road. Mr. McClure has been assigned the duties of yard checker.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

W. Bohley, a boilermaker's helper, has taken a position at the Bass shops.

The tower house at the Piqua crossing of the Pennsylvania, is being rebuilt.

Pennsylvania shopmen who are sick and off duty are J. G. Roper, R. W. Shaw and E. J. Wefel.

Machinist Frank Gable, of the Pennsylvania, has recovered from an injury and resumed work this morning.

James Ross, of the Wabash blacksmith shop, will leave in a few days for Pittsburg, on a visit with relatives.

Agent A. L. Gilbert, of the Wabash, had as a guest yesterday District Freight Agent W. A. Sprott, of Toledo.

Machinist James Magers and Pipefitter E. L. Yehl, of the Pennsylvania, were at Danville visiting friends yesterday.

H. Rossolet, a painter at the Pennsylvania shops, is fishing at Lake James, expecting to remain there all of this week.

A. C. Vodde, of the Pennsylvania copper shop, has gone to Monroeville, Ind., to help install some conduits for the company.

Tickets will be on sale for the Wabash excursion to Detroit at the shops next Wednesday. The excursion takes place next Saturday.

Harry Lonergan, the painter who was bitten by a dog a week ago, resumed work at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Glenn Hutchins, of Van Wert, who was recently employed by the Western Union company, has taken a position in the Pennsylvania shops.

R. Hickman is a new man in the meter room at the Electric works and Mr. Erdman has been transferred from the polishing to the meter room.

Carl Woodworth, a Purdue graduate, resumed his duties at the Wabash shops this morning. He spent several school vacations at that shop.

Pennsylvania engineers and firemen who are on the sick list today are J. Doesher, B. H. Kiher, M. Laughlin, A. A. Steinbach, H. B. Widner and F. Wagner.

G. C. Klug, of the Pennsylvania roundhouse, and his mother will leave the latter part of this week for Terre Haute, where they will visit friends a few days.

I. Steinberger, M. G. Butler and N. France are new employes at the Wabash shops. A Chester and F. Wilkinson resigned positions at that shop this morning.

Bernard Hedekin, clerk for Foreman F. J. Mannix, of the Pennsylvania erecting shop, is at Coldwater, Mich., visiting relatives. He will return home tonight.

Herman Kaade, of the Nickel Plate, has gone to St. Louis to represent Fort Wayne relatives of the groom at a wedding there tomorrow. He will be gone all week.

Joseph Freeland, who had a thumb hurt two weeks ago, and C. E. Mealey, who had a foot hurt last week, resumed their positions at the Wabash shops this morning.

William Reiter, a heater at the Bass blacksmith shop, was called to Adams county yesterday by news of the death of his father. The deceased was a farmer and he resided near Decatur.

Relatives of Yardmaster Dennis Hayes, of the Wabash, have cheering news from his bedside. He is getting along nicely and will be able to leave the Peru hospital inside of two weeks.

John Gime, a G. R. & I. passenger fireman, had the misfortune to have an eye burned by a hot cinder and he is temporarily deprived of sight in that optic. He will be off duty a few days.

General Foreman J. N. Robertson, of the Wabash shops, spent Sunday with his family in Peru. As soon as a suitable house can be obtained, Mr. Robertson will bring his family here to reside.

Ten or twelve men capable of doing car repair work can find steady employment at the east car shops. The very bad weather of the past two months has delayed work in that department.

Machinist Thomas C. Beals resumed his duties at the Pennsylvania shops this morning, after a week's sickness.

L. A. Schank, of the Pennsylvania boiler shop, has gone to the lakes for a week's outing.

Michael Sheridan, after a residence of only three weeks in America, has resigned his position at the Pennsylvania roundhouse and declares his intention of returning to Ireland. The young man is said to be homesick.

Among the new employes at the Pennsylvania shops today are Harry E. King, a truck repairman with Foreman I. Wise; W. O. Garman, assistant fireman at the planing mills, and W. H. Bredemeyer, a laborer at the east shops.

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT OF SACRED HEART ACADEMY

Three Young Ladies Given Diplomas—Fine Program at Robison Park.

Robison park theater was crowded with men and women this afternoon at the thirty-ninth annual commencement exercises of Sacred Heart academy. There were three graduates from this noted institution this year, Miss Genevieve Mulligan, of Longmont, Col.; Miss Hickey, of Anderson, Ind., and Miss Helen Mulligan, of Leadville, Col., all in the academic course. An interesting program had been prepared in which all the students took part and was up to the high degree of excellence which is maintained at the academy. The graduates gave scholarly and thoughtful essays with repose of manner and clearness of speech. The music was lovely and the sight of many young girls in pretty white dresses proved as fascinating as if it were the first of such events. At the academy is exhibited the beautiful work of the pupils in embroidery, crayon, water colors, oils, etc., besides books of written examinations in various studies and similar examples of progress in educational lines.

There were taking part in the program besides the three graduates who were of course the center of attraction the Misses Case, Romano, Lassus, Schwerdtfeger, Weinstein, Crown, Voisinet, Corkins, Carter, Chapin, Bortz, Coleman, Farlin, who contributed to the piano, violin or harp numbers. Miss Hickey and Miss Lassus sang alone very pleasingly and Miss Voisinet displayed talent in rendering Weber's "Invitation to the Dance." A trio by Misses Hickey, Lassus and Mulligan with Miss Voisinet accompanying at the piano was one of the fine numbers that brought much applause. Rev. J. F. Noll made appropriate remarks to the graduates and conferred certificates, medals and diplomas.

Prizes and Premiums Awarded.

Prizes for scholarship in the graduating class were donated by Rev. J. Keller and awarded the Misses Helen Mulligan and Genevieve Mulligan; in the senior class to Miss Margaret Bortz; in the preparatory class to Miss Maud Thomas.

Prizes for Christian doctrine in the senior classes were awarded to Miss Gertrude Coleman and Miss Grace Dancer; in the preparatory class to Miss Mary Lassus.

WHAT THE AMERICAN TRAMP COSTS

Striking Facts Regarding Railroad Vagrancy — Tramps Don't Tramp But They Steal Rides, Rob Cars and Stations, Stone Trains and Place Obstructions on the Track—What Railroad Heads Say.

At the national conference of Charities and Corrections at Minneapolis on Friday, June 14th, O. F. Lewis, of New York, read a paper on the "Vagrancy Problem in the United States," in which he said that American railroads kill more railway trespassers every year than the combined totals of passengers and trainmen killed annually. Nor do these striking figures show signs of decreasing from year to year. In five years, from 1901 to 1905, 23,964 trespassers were killed on American railroads, in comparison with 16,243 employes, and only 1,960 passengers. Thousands of vagrants use American railroads as an easy means of transportation from city to city or state to state. American vagrants are not pedestrians.

Much Trouble in the East.

Many railroads in eastern states are greatly troubled with vagrants. President McCrea, of the Pennsylvania railroad, reports that the 900 vagrants arrested for trespassing in 1906 are only a small portion of the total number of vagrants traveling over that railroad. President Murray, of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, says that trespassers make trouble for trainmen and in train-running. Accidents caused by them are not infrequent. The robbing of cars, freight houses and stations is practically of daily occurrence. On some New York Central lines west of Buffalo it seems impossible to keep vagrants off freight trains. They are driven off passenger trains, but in some cases extra stops must be made to unload them. The amount of loss from theft of railroad property and pilfering of freight cannot be estimated. President W. H. Truesdale, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western reports that road to be much troubled by vagrants, who steal rides; the Delaware and Hudson is similarly troubled in spring and fall. The New York Central and Hudson River reports that 30 per cent. of police work has to do with vagrants. They steal rides, annoy train crews, commit thefts, interfere with train signals, place obstructions on the tracks and stone trains.

One Reason for Hordes of Vagrants.

The principal reason for the large number of vagrants is the lack of cooperation between the railroads and the towns and cities along the lines in prosecuting and convicting vagrants. Railroads wish to put the vagrants off at or near stations, while towns are generally unwilling to stand the expense of the prosecution and maintenance of vagrants, who have no claim upon the town. Vice President Van Etten, of the Boston and Albany reports that the laws are sufficient, but that the police have no incentive to arrest these men. The Pennsylvania railroad receives little or no assistance from local authorities; frequently when taken before a magistrate a vagrant is discharged or released from the county jail within a day or two; county commissioners claim it imposes too much expense on counties to maintain vagrants in jail at the expense of the taxpayers. On the other hand the Philadelphia and Reading finds ready co-operation, and in New England, the Boston and Maine sustains cordial relations with the towns along the line in prosecuting vagrants. The Delaware and Hudson says that justices are reluctant to convict vagrants. The Erie has established little or no co-operation. On the Michigan Central it is found hard to co-operate because of the expense. Second Vice President A. J. Culver, of the Delaware and Hudson, makes the valuable suggestion that the cost of the prosecution and maintenance of vagrants should be a state charge instead of a town charge.

Merely Driven Out of Town.

President James J. Hill, of the Great Northern railroad, states that "it is now the almost universal custom for the officers before whom vagrants are brought in petty cases to order them to leave town within twenty-four hours. This rule merely passes a man on to the next village or town, which repeats the command. When all its neighbors are doing the same thing, the community receives exactly as much refuse as it gets rid of. Most of those ordered to move on take the railroad, which is made the chief sufferer by this policy."

The cost to railroads from vagrants injured or crippled varies very much. The Baltimore and Ohio states that through its regular corps of surgeons and physicians the company extends such immediate attention to the injured as common humanity impels, without distinction as to the circumstances of the unfortunate. Where hospital treatment is imperative, and not extended by the authorities, it is not withheld because of expense to the corporation. Similar practice is followed with the dead, and the annual aggregate is an appreciable one. On the Chesapeake and Ohio many trespassers are annually killed or seriously injured, a large percentage of whom are vagrants. On the Pennsylvania, for the year ending June 30, 1906, 546 persons were killed; many were not vagrants, but persons using the railroad as a highway. On the Lake Shore and Michigan Central, from 1902 to 1906, inclusive, 593 trespassers were killed and 1,389 injured. The direct cost to railroads comes in the stopping of trains when vagrants are injured. Railroads frequently convey injured vagrants to the nearest hospital, where hospital expenses are frequently guaranteed by the railroads, because of unwillingness of the towns to meet the bills, and of burial expenses when necessary.

Costs Railroads Much Money.

The Chicago and Northwestern railroad spends several thousand dollars a year in this manner. The Erie estimates its expenses also at several thousand dollars annually. The New York Central lines west of Buffalo, on the other hand, estimates their direct cost as fairly small, occurring only when there are peculiar circumstances, such as a small child, or where the trespasser is caught on a bridge. Cases of trespassers cause the railroads, however, a good deal of trouble and investigation.

The cost to society of injured vagrants is in the end enormous, because vagrants frequently are rendered incapable of doing any further work, and in consequence go to tramping or begging, spending their time between the road, the almshouse and the jail. Every charitable society knows of many instances of persons permanently maimed by railroads, who, until the end of their lives, will be largely dependent upon the public, being maintained either by individuals or by institutions for the support of the indigent.

Few Railroads Have Police Systems.

Few railroads maintain a system of railroad policing. The Pennsylvania is probably as well policed as any American road, but nevertheless is able to arrest only a small number of the trespassers that at all times are illegally using the Pennsylvania's tracks. On the Lake Shore railroad there are watchmen and special agents, who patrol the large yards, ride freight trains and some of the passenger trains. They find it impossible to even undertake to regulate trespassing; arrests at their hands mean absolutely nothing, the trespassers being released with possibly a few exceptions. On the Chesapeake and Ohio at certain points along the line, through the co-operation of the police authorities of towns and cities, vagrants are put to work on rock piles, or at other hard labor. Railroads running out of New York have in general special officers at terminals and at the larger cities along the road.

The railroads make varied suggestions looking to a reduction of the illegal use of railroads by vagrants. Vice President Van Etten, of the Boston and Albany, states that present laws prohibiting trespassing on railroads, and stealing rides on trains should be strictly enforced. "The laws should follow the English practice; all trespassing on railroad property should be absolutely forbidden, and it should be the duty of the law officers to patrol the tracks and to arrest everybody found trespassing thereon. There is danger of serious accident whenever an airbrake is suddenly applied in emergencies, which is what an engineer will do, when he sees a man on the track, who is likely to be run over."

Jail Has No Terrors; Hard Work Good.

Vice President Besler, of the Central railroad of New Jersey, states that confinement for a short period would not worry vagrants, but if hard work were added word would soon pass along, and municipalities enforcing this law would be free from vagrant annoyance.

Vice President Kennedy, of the Cumberland Valley railroad, thinks that "there is a good deal of mistaken sympathy expressed for the average tramp, who is a leach upon humanity, and should be so regarded and treated. In rural districts a large percentage of farmers do not refuse vagrants either food or shelter, fearing that if they do so the tramps will return and burn their barns. From my personal experience," writes Mr. Kennedy, "I find that the average tramp is a coward, and as soon as he is met with determined opposition he will disappear."

President Underwood, of the Erie, believes that we should have laws making it a misdemeanor for persons to be found on the premises of a railroad company, unless they are there for business reasons.

Laws Are Ineffective.

The Lehigh Valley railroad reports that there is legislation in the states through which that railroad runs punishing tramps, etc., but that there is nothing specialy applicable in the laws of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania prohibiting illegal train riding.

General Manager L'Hommedieu, of the Michigan Central, suggests a thorough investigation of the practice adopted in Canada, where they have been very successful in handling the vagrancy problem. In Michigan there is a trespass law with no penalty attached.

On the Philadelphia and Reading railroad many of the vagrants light fires at different places, but inevitably these fires are off the line or property of the road. The railroad police have no authority to arrest these vagrants, when off the railroad property, but they willingly assist the town constables.

Some Remedies for Vagrancy.

Summarizing the principal recommendations made by the railroad, it can be said that greater co-operation should exist between towns and railroads in prosecuting and convicting vagrants. Convicted vagrants should be imprisoned at hard labor for considerable periods.

Trespass laws should be enforced when adequate, strengthened when inadequate, and adopted when none exist.

The costs of prosecution and maintenance of vagrants should be made a state charge.

Individuals should refuse "kitchen-door aid" to vagrants.

Canadian and European countries can offer excellent examples of infrequent railroad vagrancy.

The facts presented by Mr. Lewis, which he has gathered by correspondence from leading officials of the different railroads, show conclusively that the vagrancy question is a serious one, not alone to the railroads but to society. Because the cost to society is so indirect and not generally observed by the public, people in general have been indifferent to the fact that vagrancy is a great drain upon towns, counties and states. During the coming year efforts will be made throughout the country to enlist the co-operation of railroads, state boards of charities, local charitable societies and individuals in obtaining more adequate trespass laws, and more adequate enforcement of these laws. The number of unnecessary vagrants is not known, but it is probably very large. There seems to be, in general, work for every able-bodied man willing to work. Even in England, where the question of the unemployed is so pressing, it is estimated by competent authorities that not over 3 per cent of the wayfarers are honest, unemployed workingmen seeking work.

The foundation for an additional big steam hammer at the Bass blacksmith shop is in and the machinery will be installed inside of two weeks. This hammer will be one of the largest and most costly in the city, the foundation alone costing as much as a small house.

Assistant Foreman F. J. Burns, of the Pennsylvania roundhouse, and Engineer Joseph Haley are fishing at Madison lake. A note from them written Saturday night stated that up to date they had caught 108 pounds of bass and one turtle which weighed 29 pounds. They will return home Wednesday.

Machinist N. Ellis, who had an eye injured last week, resumed work at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Mathew Krebs, who has been working in Kenosha, Wis., for some time, is here on a visit with his father and other relatives. The young man learned his trade in the Wabash shop and worked awhile in the Pennsylvania shops.

CITY BREVITIES.

Senator S. B. Fleming will return tonight from a business trip at New York.

A. D. Cressler, of this city, has become a non-resident member of the Chicago Automobile club.

Degree of Honor No. 23, has secured quarters in the Elektron building and hereafter will hold its meetings there.

J. A. Ludington, of St. Louis, was in the city Sunday visiting with E. A. Dalman, transfer agent for the traction company at Robison park.

Charles Morcland, clerk at the Randall hotel, who has been absent several weeks on account of the illness and death of a brother, has returned to the city.

The Sunday school of the Third Presbyterian church will hold a picnic tomorrow in the Hanna street grove, a short distance south of the Pontiac street car line.

The annual memorial services of the local lodges of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen were held Sunday at the First M. E. church, Rev. Rowand delivering the sermon.

Alfred Gross, Frank Barton and Alfred Foellinger, members of the local chapter of the Beta Phi Sigma fraternity, went to Wabash today to visit with the Betas of that city.

Mrs. E. J. Nohe, who underwent a severe surgical operation at St. Joseph hospital several weeks ago, has been removed to the home of her sister, Mrs. F. C. Heit, 1022 Lafayette street.

A number of the wholesale houses and manufacturing establishments of the city, Saturday began closing their business places at noon. In all instances this will continue up until September 1.

Mrs. H. J. Gardner, of 1150 Clay street, while walking in her yard Friday, suffered a slight stroke of paralysis, fell over and fractured her right wrist. Her condition was somewhat alarming.

Bishop Alerding has announced two changes in the Fort Wayne diocese, Rev. John Oberholz, assistant at Michigan City, being sent to Wanatah, and Rev. Bleekman, who was recently ordained, will be sent to Michigan City as assistant.

Alfred Grindle, for many years an architect in this city, is here on business and greeting his many friends. After leaving Fort Wayne four years ago Mr. Grindle was established in Muncie, but he has lately moved to Indianapolis, where he is establishing a good business in his profession. Mr. Grindle is recognized as one of the foremost architects of Indiana. Mrs. Grindle's many friends in Fort Wayne will be pleased to learn that her health is better than for many years.

WAS WIDELY KNOWN FOR TALKS ON HOME AND FARM

Mrs. W.F. DeVilbiss, Gifted Allen County Woman, is No More.

Mrs. Naomi DeVilviss, wife of William F. DeVilbiss, a gifted Allen county woman, widely known over Indiana as a lecturer in the work of the farmers' institutes and the Home-Makers' association, died at 10:15 o'clock Saturday evening at Hope hospital at the age of 47 years. Three weeks ago Mrs. DeVilbiss submitted to a surgical operation in the hope of restoration to health, but it proved unavailing.

MRS. NAOMI DEVILBISS,

Well Known Allen County Woman Claimed by Death.

Mrs. DeVilbiss was a native of Allen county, born in Madison township, April 1, 1860, and was a member of a pioneer Allen county family. The DeVilbiss home in Washington township, three miles northwest of Fort Wayne, has long been famed for its hospitality, and Mrs. DeVilbiss possessed a very wide circle of friends. She was unusually talented as a speaker, and devoted earnest effort to the bettering of life upon the farm and in the home. Surviving relatives include the husband, five children—Dr. Lydia Schouck, of Indianapolis, William, and the Misses Elizabeth, Edna and Marian DeVilbiss. The aged mother, Mrs. Ridenour, resides at Monroeville, and there are brothers and sisters as follows: C. S. Ridenour, Fort Wayne; Adam Ridenour, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Margaret Welsh, Fort Wayne; Mrs. Charles Ahr and Mrs. Rebecca Youse, of Monroeville, and Mrs. Mary Houck, of Hoagland.

Young Man—How much a year does it require to support a wife, nowadays?

Old Man—Oh, anywhere from one to five thousand.

Young Man—Isn't that rather indefinite?

Old Man—No: it takes all a man has!

"And the Green Grass Grew All Around"

Of course it would as long as this weather continues. You need a LAWN MOWER to head it off. We have just what you need and as for price, just come and show your good intention—we will do the rest.

And don't forget the canvas GRASS CATCHERS that fasten on your mower and save you the trouble of going over your lawn with the rake afterward. We sell them.
